OLD PROSPECTOR IS FOUND DEAD

Henry L. Pegg, for many years a resident of Jackson county, was found dead in his cabin on Hungry creek, Siskiyou county, Cal., August 21.

He had not been seen for several days and the miners on the creek investigated, finding him sitting on his bunk, with needle and thread in his hand. Death had evidently come to him while in the act of doing some sewing. He was about 70 years of age and for many years was a resident of the upper Rogue river section.

Coroner Kellogg is in receipt of the following letter from the Siskiyou county coroner, detailing his official action:

"Yreka, Cal., Aug. 30.—Mr. Coroner, Jackson county, Oregon. Dear Sir: I held inquest on Henry Pegg at Hungry creek, Siskiyou county, on the 22d of August. I understand that he has a place or ranch some place close to Eagle Point. You can take up the case. He had nothing in his cabin that was of any account, so I left the effects in the cabin as it was. I understand he has a sister and two nephews some place in the east. I had the body taken to Yreka and buried in the Evergreen cemetery. You can go ahead and take out your papers. I remain yours,
"T. B. DAVIDSON."

FLEETFOOTED BOY OUTRUNS BEAR HE TRIED TO KILL

WEED, Cal., Sept. 3.—A Bennett, a boy of 13 years, was out of town about a mile and a half with a 22 caliber rifle hunting for rabbits Saturday when he came across a mother bear with three cubs. He took a shot at the mother bear and she bristled up and started after him, whereupon he took fright and ran for town, never stopping or looking back. All the way he thought the bear was close behind him. The boy was so excited he could not remember how he got through the barbed wire fence and across the creeks.

A party of men started out after the bear and her cubs, but could not find them. All sorts of game is coming close to town on account of the forest fires and dense smoke.

WIVES SUICIDE AFTER QUARRELS WITH HUSBANDS

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 3.—"I'll dare you to commit suicide with me," said Mrs. Jack Williams to Mrs. Lillian Dabler late yesterday afternoon. "I've got you; let's select the poison," said Mrs. Dabler. The women, who lived together, had quarreled with their husbands. After debating an hour on the poison that would cause death the quickest, Mrs. Dabler drank a large quantity of creosote, while Mrs. Williams swallowed carbolic acid. The neighbors heard the women scream and called in physicians. Last midnight Mrs. Williams died after intense suffering and Mrs. Dabler is slowly sinking and there is little hope for her recovery.

SOME PEOPLE, AFTER ALL, IN LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—With the full count of the census returns for Greater New York, statistic lovers "got busy" today. They have found that the population of this city now is greater than the total population of California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, Montana, Wyoming and Nebraska in 1900. There are now more people than cast their votes for all four presidential candidates, Lincoln, Douglas, Breckinridge and Bell—in 1860.

MAN GREW OBSTREPEROUS NEAR THE CITY JAIL

Tom Curry, who has been working for the Clarke-Henery Co., was arrested Friday morning for being drunk upon the streets. Tom came along with the officer fairly peacefully until near the jail, then he put up a fight. Policeman Hinton has a way that is strange and peculiar in handling obstreperous characters and he had Mr. Curry "sewed up" in a few seconds so that he was willing to walk to the city bastille without further trouble.

A follower of the arrested man attempted to elope with his meal ticket while Hinton was unlocking the jail, but was detected in the act by the latter and "beat it" up the street so swiftly that the dust cloud had the same appearance as the one raised by the grading machines.

GOVERNOR HAY OFFERS REWARD FOR DYNAMITERS

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 3.—Police officials throughout the northwest were notified today that Governor Hay has offered a reward of $250 for the capture of the persons who attempted to blow up the Lyons building in Seattle yesterday.

While the authorities suspect that some disgruntled workman set off the charge of nitroglycerin in the elevator shaft of the big six-story building which is in course of construction, they admit that the attempt at wrecking the structure may have been inspired through other motives. The block was being built by an open-shop firm, but it is not believed that union met set off the explosive.

It is estimated that it will cost $2500 to repair the damage caused by the explosion.

A store should be advertised as regularly as it is opened for business. A merchant who wouldn't close up for a while now and then "to save running expenses" shouldn't stop advertising now and then to "save expense."

Haskins for health.

Make Every Dollar Worth More Than a Dollar!

An educated ad reader will never be poor. To "know advertising" is to have a practical knowledge of values—of things—of when and how and where to buy. No one, having and utilizing such knowledge, could ever be unthrifty, or in any sense careless or reckless of expenses. For such knowledge makes for thrift—for saving. It makes one proof against shams—false values—manipulated reductions.

The intelligent ad reader uses as much thought and ability in buying things as is required in earning the money that is spent for them. And that amounts to a substantial increase of the value of every dollar of the family revenue!
