

BOY SCOUT SUIT IS PROPER THING

Paris Styles Are Pronounced "Bunc" and "Lemons"—Brown Will Be the Prevailing Color Worn This Fall and Winter by Ladies.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Ladies, do you know that:

The "Boy Scout" suit is to be the smartest thing for the fall?

The jungle suit is to give it a good run for popularity?

Brown is to be the color most worn?

Coats are to be outlined in furs a la Russe?

Also, are you aware that:

Paris nowadays is constructing her more Frenchy gowns of American-made silks?

American designers are drawing and outlining the daintiest things made in the French capital?

"Style Show" Coming.

All of this information, which seems to be quite a newsy bunch to pass out at once, came from the National association of Ladies' Tailors in meeting tonight. They are going to have a "style show" October 10 to 16, on the roof of the Hotel Astor, and are now preparing for it.

About 50 of the tailors from all parts of the country were present to voice their opinions. They were unanimous in this sentiment, couched in exactly these words:

"Paris styles are all 'bunc'; they are 'lemons'. The time has come for American ladies' tailors to throw off the yoke of Paris and proclaim that their styles are their own."

New York—Not Paris.

The tailor orators frankly confessed right out in meeting that many a gown they showed to a customer with the explanation that it was direct from Paris had been born and reared right in their little shops.

"We have to say it's from Paris to suit the women," they declared, "because they think nothing good can come from anywhere else. Now, we want to be done with Paris. We want to show the women that America is the world leader in fashion—since our designers and our mats are responsible for the finest things shown on the boulevards."

Several of the speakers declared that American women who bought clothes in Paris are "haveses," paying double prices for inferior goods.

"The smart looking models" not what the models have on, get the women's eye," the tailors said.

REPORT CHANLER HAS LEFT WIFE

Man Who Won Hand of Madame Lina Cavalleri Is Said to Have Deserted Spouse and Is Now in Hiding.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Broken and despondent, with his romance shattered and his fortune scattered, Robert Winthrop Chanler, successful suitor for the hand of Madame Lina Cavalleri, is in hiding today, according to statements of his acquaintances here.

Following Chanler's recent hurried return from Europe, stories of a separation from his wife were circulated. These Chanler vehemently denied. With a week passed since his return, however, another reason for his return has been suggested by his friends.

According to them, shortly after his marriage, Chanler transferred his $30,000 yearly income to Madame Cavalleri, who now offers him $20,000 to pay his expenses. Further, they say, he transferred to her the bulk of his estate, the papers being signed before their marriage upon Madame Cavalleri's demand. His friends fear his mind may become affected and some of them are with him constantly in his retreat, which they refuse to divulge, to keep him from brooding over his troubles.

Chanler paid ardent court to the singer for more than a year. After frequent proposals he was accepted. They were married June 15.

A cable from Madame Cavalleri today denies any separation. The message was worded similarly to that she sent the day after Chanler's return.

JOHN A. WESTERLUND

Candidate for the Republican Nomination for State Representative

I was born in Henry county, Illinois, 45 years ago. Until my twenty-second year worked on a farm, then attended Betheny college, Lindsburg, Kansas, from which institution I graduated in 1891.

I have been interested in fruit and horticulture for fifteen years and during the last seven years actively engaged in such work in the Rogue River valley.

John A. Westerlund.

I believe in the initiative and referendum and State-ment No. 1, and shall, if elected, vote for that candidate for the United States senate who receives the largest number of votes at the primaries.

I believe in good roads and shall favor legislation tending to give us improved highways.

I shall oppose all extravagant creation of salaried officers and commissions and shall favor an economical administration of the affairs of this state.

I favor state aid for the Ashland Normal school and such legislation as shall constantly improve our public schools.

I shall, if elected, devote my best energies for the welfare of the state of Oregon and Jackson county in particular.

JOHN A. WESTERLUND.

KING VICTOR SORE ON ABRUZZI-ELKINS MATCH

LONDON, Sept. 10.—So incensed has King Victor Emmanuel become over reports sent out concerning the Elkins-Abruzzi affair that he has ordered the premier to impound all dispatches relating thereto, according to a dispatch from Rome today.

It is stated here on good authority, the message says, that King Victor Emmanuel is highly incensed at the continued flow of reports, rumors and contradictions about the engagement of Miss Elkins and the Duke de Abruzzi. Premier Luzzati has been instructed to impound all dispatches sent to foreign newspapers on this subject.

A store should be advertised as regularly as it is opened for business. A merchant who wouldn't close up for a while now and then "to save running expenses" shouldn't stop advertising now and then "to save expense."

Orchards On the Small Payment Plan

We have received so many inquiries during the past few weeks for orchards on the small payment plan that we have decided to place on the market a monthly payment plan which should interest every young man in Medford who desires to become the owner of an orchard. Our small payments and long term contract will enable the young man who can put away a few dollars every month, to hold and own one of the best orchard properties in the valley.

Our small payment plan applies to both undeveloped land with irrigation, and our orchard development contract. We will plow, level and plant your orchard tract to trees and care for it for a period of five years, and at the end of this time will turn your orchard over to you and give you additional time on the balance due.

We do not believe that you can find such an attractive proposition offered by any reliable company in a proven orchard district.

Remember this: The Medford District of the Rogue River Valley has been pronounced by leading experts as the most perfect fruit belt in the world.

Orcharding in this Valley is no longer a haphazard business proposition, but it has been reduced to a science and there is nothing offered for investment that is any surer, safer or more profitable than an orchard in this famous district.

Come to our office and let us explain to you the details of this attractive monthly payment plan.

MANY CEMENT WALKS LAID IN JACKSONVILLE

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 10.—This city's neighbors probably do not realize that Jacksonville was in earnest when the city council ordered approximately a mile of cement walk laid last month. To prove that the town is, there is already almost one-quarter of it down, and the contractors are laying more as fast as possible. The cement is certainly a great improvement over the flagstones that have been here since 1860, or thereabouts. With Main street obstructed with bags and gravel piles and mixing boards, Jacksonville looks almost as prosperous as her larger neighbors.

Lorimer Quits Club.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Senator William Lorimer this afternoon resigned from the Hamilton club. His resignation was the direct result of the withdrawal by the club of an invitation to attend a banquet because Colonel Roosevelt refused to be present if Lorimer were there.

Lorimer was one of the oldest members of the Hamilton club. He had a strong personal following among the club members and further defections from the club's rolls may follow.

Fire Chief Killed.

SAN MATEO, Cal., Sept. 10.—Fire Chief Brown of San Jose was killed almost instantly today when an automobile in which he was returning from San Francisco to San Jose overturned. The accident occurred on the San Bruno road between San Bruno and Colma. The body was taken to Burlingame.

CALEB POWERS FOR CONGRESS

Man Who Was Central Figure in American Tragedy Is Making Strenuous Campaign—Charged With Complicity in Goebel Murder.

BARBOURVILLE, Ky., Sept. 10.—Caleb Powers, the central figure in one of the most remarkable tragedies of American political life, is making a strenuous campaign for the republican nomination for congress with every prospect of winning the nomination.

The return of Powers to public life recalls the assassination of Governor William Goebel of Kentucky, who was killed by a rifle bullet shot from some distance.

Powers was arrested and charged with complicity in Goebel's murder. He was convicted three times, was twice sentenced to death and finally was sent to the penitentiary under a life sentence. Governor Wilson finally pardoned him after a disagreement of the jury at Powers' fourth trial.

Powers charged that his conviction was due to the fact that he was a political enemy of Governor Goebel. When he was on trial political feeling ran high.

Powers is seeking to wrest the nomination from the incumbent, Don Calvin Edwards, of London, who served as a member of the 59th congress, was re-elected to the 60th congress and again elected to the 61st congress by a vote of more than 2 to 1 over his democratic opponent, A. G. Patterson, and who is now a candidate for re-nomination at the primary elections to be held September 15.
