EMPORIUM OPENING A GREAT SUCCESS

The formal opening at the Emporium was a grand success in every way. No store in any city could have been more attractively decorated and the windows would have done credit to a city ten times the size of Medford.

The new fall styles in suits and millinery were most charmingly displayed and the large attendance proved that the people of Medford appreciate high-class goods.

To add to the attractiveness of the occasion, the ladies of the store were in evening costume.

The store decorations were in red and green.

An orchestra discoursed music until a late hour and Miss Brown rendered three vocal solos.

CRATER LAKE HIGHWAY CONTRACT TO BE LET

There will be a meeting of the Crater Lake highway commission tonight at 8 o'clock at the Commercial club rooms. All members of the commission are urgently requested to be present in order to consider letting of contracts for work.
