"Count that day lost, whose sun, descending fast, Views from thy hand no bunch of ballots cast."
--From the Lyrics of the Contest Editor.

As an incentive to the contestants during the first few weeks of the contest, the management has decided to offer special inducements for new subscribers, which is bound to meet with the approval of every contestant, for the reason that during the next ten days every twelve months' subscription to the Mail Tribune turned in will entitle you to 20,000 extra votes. Yearly subscriptions will never count for more, as the schedule will not be changed in this contest.

Great Special Offer.

For ten days only, beginning Wednesday, September 14, and ending Saturday, September 24, at 11 p. m., in addition to the votes given on subscriptions according to the schedule, we make the contestants the following offer:

We will give to each and every contestant an extra ballot of 100,000 votes who turns into the Mail Tribune office five new twelve-month daily subscriptions between Wednesday, September 14, and Saturday, September 24. We will give each and every contestant an extra ballot of 50,000 votes who turns in five new six-month daily subscriptions between the above dates. This is your chance to catch the leaders. Take advantage of it. Yearly subscriptions count two for six months. Stamped With Seal of Success.

The large number of votes cast for the candidates stamps the greatest popular voting contest ever conducted with the seal of unqualified success. From all parts of the territory embraced, candidates have entered the race, and they are receiving loyal support from their home communities. This makes the contest a uniformly fair one, and no candidate has as yet received enough votes to give a lead that cannot be overcome.

Another feature about the Mail Tribune contest that makes it extremely popular, and which is causing interest to spread over the country at a rate unsurpassed in history, is that prizes of equal value will be given in each district, with the exception of the capital prize, the five-passenger automobile, which goes to the girl with more votes than any other in the contest.

In each district there will be awarded an equal number of prizes to the young ladies. The large number in the contest assures the candidates that no one person will be able to secure such a large number of votes that others will not be able to overcome the lead. The prizes offered are magnificent, and the contest is still young. If you are a candidate and there are others who have more votes in the contest to date than you may have, there is no cause for discouragement.

When sending in coupons, kindly cut them out as neatly as possible, writing the name plainly, and pin them together or inclose them in an envelope. Contest managers have tempers as well as other people, and when the votes come in tied in a knot and look as though they had been cut out with an ax, it is very exasperating.

Many a young woman will be saying in a few weeks: "Oh, if I only had asked my friends to clip the coupons and nomination blanks from the Mail Tribune and had gathered up a few subscriptions, I would be right up in the race and have a good chance to win one of those fine prizes." The Mail Tribune never does things by halves, and the young ladies who win these prizes are going to be well taken care of.

Future Subscriptions.

Contestants may find in some cases friends who wish to help them in the contest by subscribing for the Mail Tribune, but are already taking a local paper which is paid in advance and not desiring to receive more than one local daily in their home at the same time, the contest department has arranged to accept and issue votes on all such subscriptions, the paper to start at any future date that the subscriber may designate.

Territory No Limit.

The candidates may work in any territory they choose. Each one must be a resident of a district to win within that district, but they may go into any district or outside of all the districts if they so desire, to get the ballots that are printed in the paper and to secure paid-in-advance subscriptions on which special ballots are issued.

If you are not provided with a subscription book, notify the contest department. If any of the contestants are not getting the paper, we will be very glad to place them on the free list during the contest.

If you want a prize, get busy---by getting your friends to subscribe for the Mail Tribune or have them renew their subscriptions, as votes are issued on all back subscriptions when paid.

Collectors and solicitors, both in the city and rural districts, are equipped with ballot books and are authorized to issue ballots when subscriptions are paid. Be sure and demand your ballots when paying subscriptions, either arrears or in advance. Don't forget to call up the contest manager if there is anything you do not understand, as he is always in the office and ready to give any information desired.

Special Information.

In view of the fact that a great number of the contestants do not seem to understand that the nomination blank can be used as many times as the contestant is able to obtain the blanks. All that is necessary to place on the nomination blank is the contestant's name and the district in which she belongs. So it is to the advantage of each contestant to save the nomination blanks the same as the small coupons.

NATURE'S WARNING.

Medford People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come quietly---mysteriously.

But nature always warns you. Notice the kidney secretions. See is the color is unhealthy--- If there are settlements and sediment. Passages frequent, scanty, painful. It's time then to use Doan's Kidney Pills;

To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes.

Doan's have done great work in Medford.

A. Z. Sears, 231 Fifth street, Medford, Or., says: "Since publicly recommending Doan's Kidney Pills in 1907, I have used them occasionally and they have always brought the best of results. I was afflicted with severe pains in my back and I often found it almost impossible to stoop. The kidney secretions passed frequently and this weakness was a source of much annoyance. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, I procured a box at Haskins' drug store and by the time I had finished the contents, I could see that they were the right remedy for my trouble. Gradually the pains and other difficulties disappeared and my health improved. I cheerfully recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to everyone afflicted with kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name---Doan's---and take no other.
