GREAT DECLINE ON NEW YORK MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Small losses entailed by a general decline marked the opening of the stock market today. Rock Island, Union Pacific and Interborough Metropolitan preferred declined 1/4, while Amalgamated Copper, Smelting, U. S. Steel, Southern Pacific and St. Paul lost fractions. Supporting orders appeared later, but recoveries were slight. In the later trading uncertainty ruled and the prices became almost stationary at about the level of Saturday's close. Bonds were irregular.

WOMAN KILLED IN STREETCAR ACCIDENT

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—Mrs. Frank X. Leidel is dead; Mrs. J. Stephen Kailin, wife of a Southern Pacific employe, is thought to be dying and Mrs. William Satable, wife of a Playa del Rey rancher, is seriously and perhaps fatally injured as the result of an accident at the crossing at Boyers, on the Los Angeles-Pacific electric line to Venice. The three women were driving across the tracks in a buggy when they were struck by a three-car beach express. The buggy was demolished and the three occupants were hurled many feet. The husbands of the women, who were walking ahead of the buggy a short distance, saw the accident. The approaching cars were hidden at the crossing by a thick clump of trees.

VENETTA FEUD ENDS IN BRUTAL MURDER

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 19.—Joseph Rossa is held today to answer a charge of murder following the culmination of a vendetta feud last night when Joe Boatro was shot dead and Darland Bese was mortally wounded. Bese said he and Boatro were shot after they had refused to engage in a pistol duel to determine who was the "best man." The Rossa brothers have been bitter enemies of the victims of the shooting for a long time, it is alleged. After the shooting Joseph Rossa was arrested in a nearby saloon, but his brother could not be found.
