"Count that day lost, whose sun, descending fast, Views from thy hand no bunch of ballots cast."
--From the Lyrics of the Contest Editor.

Friends who subscribe for the paper for a term are really not donating anything from their pockets since they will receive full value for the amounts they subscribe to the Mail Tribune, which will be sent to any address to which they may remove for the term which the subscription is paid. The Mail Tribune will not only maintain its present standard of a clean and new, reliable family paper, but will go on improving its columns and so far as possible perfecting its delivery service so that there will be no regrets at having subscribed to help some deserving contestant.

A difference of a few thousand votes is not a very large margin, as it means but a year or six months' subscription to the Mail Tribune, and those who are behind by such a small number should not lose heart by any means, but keep on with the race with renewed vigor. A race is never ended until time for the last competitor to win out. Keep up with the contest and make it your determination to win and you will be successful.

The standing of the contestants as presented today show a decided gain in the standing of a number of girls who were down the list in yesterday's paper. Many that were near the bottom of the list have forged very near the top of the column.

There is still time for any girl in the list to start in and get to the top if she so desires; as an example, you can take any girl in the list and give her three new yearly subscriptions and she would be right up amongst the leaders. Where is the girl that does not number among her friends three people who would be pleased to give her a boost by subscribing for the Mail Tribune to help her win one of the grand prizes we are going to give away. A great many young ladies do not want to win the automobile, but do want to win one of those scholarships that we are giving. It is a laudable ambition on the part of any young lady to want to perfect herself in business methods and every one will be willing to help her. Do not delay, but start in at once, ask your friends to save the votes for you and when paying their subscriptions to be sure and get the votes from the collector.

Large Vote Cast.
With the close of the voting yesterday almost every contestant in the four districts had been heard from and their count materially increased over what they had received at the close of the box the preceding day.

Great Interest.
On all sides interest in the great popular contest is taking a great increase, and patrons are selecting their favorite candidates, for whom they are voting liberally.

The leaders are increasing their vote and those who are in the contest in earnest are gaining every day. It is interesting to keep check of the battle of ballots and, every mail makes some changes in the relative position of some candidate. Now it is one contestant that receives a boost toward the top and then another. But the standing as published in the paper does not tell the whole story. It is a good thing to keep near the head of the list, but it is a greater advantage to have a reserve back of which no one knows anything about, and which can be brought into good play later on. With all your votes in the paper it is an easy matter for any one to see exactly what you have and how many it will take to beat you in the end.

Industrious Forge Ahead.
The list of candidates and the number of votes received by each show that the industrious are forging ahead in the battle of the ballots. The votes are free, but in many cases it is necessary for the candidates to go around among their friends and gather them in. These free votes are given for payments on subscriptions, for new subscriptions and also for coupons and nomination blanks printed in the paper daily. The votes on the subscriptions are free and the number is in proportion to the amount paid at the regular rate.

All ballots issued on subscription payments are good any time during the contest and for this reason we do not deem it advisable to hold their subscription back. By having the paper started to the subscribers you will be able to secure their coupons and nomination blanks.

Subscription Ballots.
Every part and phase of the contest has been planned out in the utmost fairness. The territory has been divided into two districts so that candidates in the country will not be competing with the candidates in the city.

Everything Fair and Equal.
In the city of Medford the interest is such that friends of candidates call at the office to learn how some friend is progressing and letters of inquiry are received by every mail. New candidates are entering the contest, and without a doubt it will be the greatest voting contest ever conducted by a newspaper in Southern Oregon.

Check over the list, see what your friends are doing, what the other candidates are doing and who will probably win the magnificent array of prizes.

Great Special Offer.
For ten days only, beginning Wednesday, September 14, and ending Saturday, September 24, at 11 p. m. in addition to the votes given on subscriptions according to the schedule, we make the contestants the following offer:

We will give to each and every contestant an extra ballot of 100,000 votes who turns into the Mail Tribune office five new twelve-months daily subscriptions between Wednesday, September 14, and Saturday, September 24. We will give each and every contestant an extra ballot of 50,000 votes who turns in five new six-months daily subscriptions between the above dates. This is your chance to catch the leaders. Take advantage of it. Yearly subscriptions count two for six months.

Open Evenings.
For the benefit of those who are not able to get to this office during business hours, the Contest Department will be open every evening until 9 o'clock.

Drink cunningly destroys the will power, and while the drunkard wants to do what you tell him, he wants a thousand times more the drink that he craves. Medical treatment is necessary. This remedy is thoroughly scientific, and is so uniformly successful that it sold with registered guarantee to refund the money if it fails to effect a cure.
