

Eagle Point Eaglets

—By—
A. C. Howlett.

A. S. Carlton has been smiling on his many friends here.

Alfred Gordon passed through here Monday on his way to Medford.

Mrs. McNeil and Mrs. Reynolds were the guests of Mrs. John Hart last week.

Mr. Stewart has resigned his position as freight agent here and Oscar Wright has taken his place.

Mr. Brannan is engaged putting in a septic tank for Professor P. H. Daily.

William von der Hellen took a business trip Wednesday to John Rader's and Thomas Riley's.

Captain Miller, who has been living near Brownsboro for some time, started for the coast a few days ago to remain for a while.

Lon Smith, one of the young men who has been making his home with us for the last five years, is engaged driving the stage from here to Butte Falls for Mr. Harnish.

Dell Hazel and Mr. MacAdams and another gentleman whose name I did not learn and three ladies came out from Medford Sunday for dinner in an auto, and after dinner took a trip up the country north of here along the railroad track.

William Spencer of Dudley came out the last of the week, went to Medford and bought his supplies for winter, and Sunday John Higinbotham came out and took them to his home. Messrs. Lewis Jones and Mr. Owens also were here taking supplies for their families for the winter. They are all looking forward to the time when they can ship their supplies up on the cars.

The same day F. A. Pell of Medford drove up on the way from Crater Lake with Emil Coreker and wife and Wilson Corker of Medford, and J. W. Little, Mirian Little and Corinne Little. The last three named are from Cincinnati, O., out on a visit to Mrs. Hittle's brother, Mr. Corker. They have been visiting relatives in Seattle, Portland, Eugene and will round up their visit by seeing the ninth wonder of the world, Crater Lake. They are highly pleased with our delightful climate and the productiveness of the soil.

Frank Neil was here Monday circulating a petition for a county road from the station, Derby, near the present site of the Derby postoffice on the P. & E. railroad, on what is known as the Wristy flat and running by the old Hi Wilkenson place down

Crow fork. He says that the railroad company have made a survey over the proposed route—the same route that was traveled 25 years ago. He was meeting with good success.

Last Thursday, September 15, being William Knighton's 77th birthday, and September 20 Mrs. Nellie Grover's birthday, and the same date the 20th being the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. Knighton and Miss Dawson, the arrangement was made to have a union celebration of the events. So invitations were given out to about all of the old acquaintances of both families to meet at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Grover on that day to take part in the exercises of the golden wedding, and by 10 o'clock a. m. the company began to arrive and about noon dinner was announced. Mrs. Grover acted as mistress of the ceremonies and after she had arranged 23 to the tables—all standing—Rev. Lamar commanded William Knighton and his wife to join their right hands and then proceeded to pronounce the words that would join them together for the rest of their lives, making him promise to take her, keep her and provide for her, and bring in the wood and water, do the other chores, etc., which he cheerfully agreed to do, and then, turning to the lady, asked her if she would take him, wash his clothes, mend his socks, make his bed, cook his food, wash his feet and comb his hair (he is bald headed), but when it came to washing his feet, right there she protested and said no; no washing feet in hers. But the matter was amicably arranged, and we were all seated and your correspondent was called on to ask the divine blessing on the food, etc., after which all hands began to eat as though we had had nothing to eat since breakfast. And, oh, such a dinner! Mr. K. had been to Medford and procured all the delicacies he could find, and then in addition to that Mrs. Grover is recognized as being a perfect mistress of the culinary department of housekeeping, and the result was the natural question the next morning: "How do you feel after the dinner?" Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Knighton, Mrs. Mayfield, Mrs. A. J. Goode, Mr. and Mrs. Painter, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Mr. G. H. Wamsley, Mr. J. J. Fryer, Rev. and Mrs. Lamar, Mrs. G. W. Owings, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jackson, Mrs. Riddle, Mr.

JOURNALISM TO BE TAUGHT AT U. OF O.

EUGENE, Or., Sept. 23.—A special course in practical journalism is to be introduced in the university this year in connection with the publicity department. The plan is to have every county in the state represented by one or more amateur journalists and through them to keep the home folk in touch with university happenings.

It is thought that this will arouse an added interest in the university and instruct its friends in the outlying districts who are served principally by the country newspapers. One hour semester credit will be given for work in this connection.

NOTICE TO REDMEN.

All members of Weatoaka tribe, No. 39, Im'd O. R. M., are hereby notified that the next regular meeting of the tribe will be held in Smith's hall, 128 North Grape street, Saturday night, September 24, 1910, and each and every Saturday night thereafter until further notice.

All members are requested to be present.

L. L. JACOBS,
Chief of Records.

Whetsel of the Whetsel Music company of Medford, Mrs. James Ringer, Mrs. Ed Egrass, Mrs. Jonas, Mrs. A. N. Thomas, Mrs. A. J. Florey, Mrs. W. L. Childreth, Mrs. Frank Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Howlett, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Grover, Miss Mabel Wamsley, Miss Mamie Wright, Misses Hattie and Agnes Howlett, Mr. William Wright and Oscar Wright. As the reader will see, there was a good many widows and girls of marriageable age, and the idea of a golden wedding made some of the old widowers and boys of marriageable age feel young again, and we began to think that we might have to send a runner to Jacksonville before the festivities would be over. I tell you, Mr. Wamsley is a boss hand at waiting on the table, and he just tried himself on that occasion.

There has been another change in real estate here. Wednesday morning Leo Ulrich reports having sold lot No. 2 in Ulrich addition to Eagle Point to a gentleman from near Peyton by the name of Sid Nichols, and reports that he expects to build this fall and go into business.

The Most Perfect Block of Trees in the Pacific Northwest

Sixty-six and a half acres of SUNCREST ORCHARDS is offered for sale in five and ten-acre tracts on terms that should prove most attractive.

This tract is planted, two rows alternately, to Yellow Newtown, Spitzenberg and Jonathan Apples, the very choicest standard commercial varieties.

They are eight years of age and have a good crop this year. They are well set with fruit spurs for next year's crop.

The trees are large for their age, are uniform in size and exceptionally thrifty.

The soil is the very best. Drainage is perfect. Altitude about sixteen hundred feet. Distance from shipping station about a mile and a half.

Price and terms: $1000 per acre, half cash, balance in three equal annual payments, with interest at six per cent.

A five-acre tract of this bearing orchard will cost the purchaser $2500 in cash, $833.13 in 1911, $833.13 in 1912 and $833.13 in 1913. After the first payment is made the crop should a great deal more than pay the balance.

This is an exceptional opportunity to become the owner of what is unquestionably one of the finest young orchards in the northwest. The trees are the right varieties, they are in perfect condition, and there is a surety of a satisfactory income.

The time to buy is now. Let us show you these tracts.
