

COAST CENSUS RETURNS HELD-UP

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—A number of the cities of the Pacific coast are being investigated today by experts to ascertain whether the census returns are padded. Among the cities under investigation are Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, Spokane, Berkeley, Oakland, Los Angeles and a few more ambitious communities.

Mr. Durand, who is directing the census, admitted that experts are in the field, and that he has issued a blanket order to cover all Pacific coast cities so that no one may ascertain just what cities are being investigated. San Francisco is not one of them, as Mr. Durand said that he would be in a position to announce its population within two or three weeks.

Cause Always Precedes Effect.

When desiring relief from disease it is a good idea to remember that while an effect exists, cause does also. With cause existing permanent relief is not to be had. The elimination of disease depends on the removal of the cause. It is necessary to know the cause of disease in order to eliminate it. The etiology has been theorized on by some of the most learned men, past and present. They have tried to form a specific basis for their claims, but without results, as they tell you. They treated effects to relieve disease, but results were very unsatisfactory with cause existing.

Chiropractic was founded 15 years ago, and since then has been developed into a science and philosophy without an equal. It is a science which pertains to the study of cause and elimination of disease. It positively proves the cause of diseases of the heart, liver, stomach, kidneys and all other organs and tissues of the body are exactly the same, not in one, but in every individual. A chiropractor on an examination of patients with the same disease can show the same displacements causing the trouble in each.

Chiropractic proves osseous displacements, especially of the spinal column, interfering with the nerve supply, are the positive and specific cause of 95 per cent of diseases. The other 5 per cent being due to direct injuries. These displacements, due to sudden falls, jerks, shocks, frights, wrenches, poisons taken into the system through the air breathed or internally and by other ways too numerous to mention, can in the majority of cases be corrected by one who thoroughly understands chiropractic methods.

Dr. Gordon's experience places him in a position to know how to get the quickest results. If discouraged through the inability to get relief by other methods, don't give up, but go and see him. His practice is composed largely of people who failed to get results elsewhere. If your case is one he can do nothing for he will tell you so. His office is over the Medford Hardware company, 216 East Main street, Medford, Or. Office hours, 10 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 and 7 to 8 p. m.

CARROLL CASE WILL BE CONDUCTED TO VERDICT

DES MOINES, Sept. 24.—A motion to take the Carroll libel case out of the hands of the jury and instruct for a verdict of acquittal made by the defense was today denied by District Judge Howe and the case, which was brought against Governor Carroll by John Cownle, former chairman of the state board of control, will proceed.

When the case is called Monday, Governor Carroll announced today, he will introduce evidence to prove the truth of the charges contained in the attacks on Cownle.
