SPECIAL NOTICE.

The management of the Mail Tribune has decided to reduce the subscription price during the contest from $6 a year to $5 per year for papers delivered by carrier. Beginning today subscribers to the Mail Tribune paying in advance will pay only $5 per year. This reduction is good only during the contest. See price and vote schedule on this page.

Special Notice.

Each and every nomination blank that is cut from the Mail Tribune will count twenty votes, and a candidate can be nominated as many times as she can get blanks. After a candidate has been nominated in the contest, it is not necessary to have the nomination blanks signed.

Never in the history of Medford and surrounding country has there been anything in the contest like that has caused the intense enthusiasm that the Mail Tribune's great up-to-date voting contest is creating.

Wherever you go you will hear the people talking about the different contestants. Where does she stand today—has she gained that much?—and other like expressions. All this goes to show that every one is talking about this contest and wondering who will win.

The girl who is wise enough to realize that a new subscriber will bring her just double the amount of votes that an old subscriber does is the one who will stand a far better chance of winning the grand prize at the close of the contest.

"Energetic and sure to win," is the way we describe her, the girl who comes in with the new subscribers. The contestants in the outside districts can send in the subscriptions as soon as secured and the votes in which they are entitled will be mailed to them and can be voted at once or saved by them for a reserve. By doing this the paper can be started to the subscriber at once, which will enlarge your campaign.

The contest manager is at the Mail Tribune office and is prepared to answer all questions of those who call or write to him. Call on the contest manager and he will prepare you for making a campaign that will accomplish wonders.

Receipt Books.
If any contestant has not received a receipt book to list her contest contributions, we will be very glad to send her one on receiving the request. We can also supply for the contestants in district No. 2 with lists of our subscribers in your locality, so you will know who are now taking votes and from how many receipt books are a very handy thing to have, as some of your friends may want to pay you for the term which they give them a receipt for their money.

Yesterday was the banner day of the contest up to date. This is the record for three weeks. Not half bad for the short length of time the contest has been in operation. Votes are coming in more rapidly daily and from now on in the Mail Tribune contest will be the most absorbing topic of conversation in Medford and surrounding country. Interest is increasing daily since the publication of the first list of names and indications are that the different ladies in the contest will be able to get votes at a great deal more easily from now on.

A great many ballots and nomination blanks are received at this office without the names of the contestants on the coupons or the count slips. The contest manager has no way of knowing who these votes are for and the contestants lose them. Be sure that your name is on the count slip or on the blanks.

Friends who subscribe for the paper for a term are really not donating anything from their pockets, since they will receive full value for the amount they subscribe to the Mail Tribune, which will be sent to any address to which they may remove for the term which the subscription is paid. The Mail Tribune will not only maintain its present standard of a clean and newsy, reliable family paper, but will go on improving its columns and so far as possible perfecting its delivery service so that there will be no regrets at having subscribed to help some deserving contestant.

PICKS PHILLIES AS WINNERS FARM HOMES FOR Y.M.C.A. MEMBERS

PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 23.—As a practical move in the back-to-the-farm campaign, the Portland Y. M. C. A. will try the experiment of establishing farm homes for its members. Plans have been made for the purchase of a big tract of land of almost 1000 acres within ten miles of Portland by the association. This land will be cut up into small tracts of ten and fifteen acres, and arrangements made whereby members of the Y. M. C. A. can obtain titles to the property.

"The lands will be placed in charge of a secretary who knows something about the raising of livestock and farm products," said H. W. Stone, general secretary of the Portland association. "The tracts will be sold at a reasonable price to young men of the Young Men's Christian association. This will help them to start a home. That's what the Y. M. C. A. is for, to get young men to get married, tied up to a church and a home started."

Secretary Stone said two graduates of the Oregon Agricultural college were ready to give practical instruction in farming methods to the young men who buy tracts in the colony and to help them to get started along the right lines.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Tyrus Cobb picks the Philadelphia Athletics to win over the Chicago Cubs in the world's series. In a signed article appearing in today's World, Cobb says:

"The Athletics, on form, will win. By form I mean the style of play that made each team champion of its league. Luck, of course, enters into it. By luck, I mean the uncertain element of chance.

"The first game is the crucial one. In a series of seven games like the world's championship, the team winning the first game has 'an ace in the hole,' so to speak. It puts that team up on a pedestal which the loser thereafter tries to climb.

"Both the Athletics and Cubs are fast players, as they have shown in past performances. They should put up their clearest ball in the first game. If they do, and luck does not interfere, I think the Athletics will win."

Big Demand for College Graduates. BALLINGER BACK TO ATTEND CABINET MEET

CORVALLIS, Or., Sept. 23.—That the demand for college trained men to fill positions of importance for the government for educational institutions and for big agricultural enterprises is greater than can readily be supplied at present is proven by the number of vacancies which the Oregon Agricultural college has had to refuse men for, because those fitted for them were already placed.

In the past two years many graduates have received appointment in government departments or elsewhere. One went to the University of Idaho as professor of horticulture; five more became assistants in experiment station work, including a horticulture instructor in the University of Maine, another in Washington State college and others in the Canadian department of agriculture, the Hermiston experiment station and that at Union, as well as expert for the United States department of agriculture in horticultural work. Seven are now orchard foremen and a number more have obtained instructional appointments at their alma mater at Corvallis.

You can sell to two people where you now sell to one if you double the force of your advertising.

QUARREL OVER PROPERTY RESULTS IN MURDER

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Sept. 24.—Jeff Thomas, 45, a sheep and cattleman of the Cabbage Patch district, died today at the local hospital as the result of wounds inflicted by his stepson, Arthur Hunt, 28, late yesterday. Hunt, who gave himself up, is in the county jail here, charged with murder.

The men quarreled over the distribution of property left by Frank Hunt, father of the man in jail. Bad blood is said to have existed between them for several years. Hunt says he shot in self defense.
