SPECIAL NOTICE.
The management of the Mail Tribune has decided to reduce the subscription price during the contest from $6 a year to $5 per year for papers delivered by carrier. to better things. Open Evenings. For the benefit of those who are not able to get to this office during business hours, the Contest Department will be open every evening until 9 o'clock.

The Mail Tribune has hit upon a plan whereby old subscribers may do something which will materially assist any of the young ladies entered in the great contest now being conducted by this paper. Of course, at all times, old subscribers have been saving their daily coupons most assiduously and they have been collected with alacrity, yet when the special vote offerings for new subscribers are considered these pale almost into insignificance. This paper realizes that every subscriber has some favorite among the large number of contestants whom he or she would be glad to assist in an even greater degree, hence the evolution of the new plan.

This may not occur to you, but even if one aspirant does get a few thousand votes in the lead of her competitors in a certain district it must not be taken for granted that the race is won, and perhaps the young ladies who are apparently reposing in quiet near the bottom will be the ones to creep unawares and carry off the prize. Such things have been done and many a race has been lost by overconfidence. Don't let your influence go one way or the other. It is often the case that a candidate or her friends will hear that such a one has secured a few years' subscriptions. These rumors usually are false, as the secrets of this office are not sold to inquirers, and the reports are therefore started in hopes that the other young ladies of this district will become discouraged and stop their efforts. Such rumors should only be the goal.
