

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

Eagle Point Eaglets

—By—
A. C. Howlett.

Mrs. F. Fredenburg stayed here Sunday night and took the Butte Falls stage for her home. She has been in Ashland for medical treatment for the past three months.

There has been an unusual number of strangers stop here during the last few days and many of them are very reticent as to their plans or aims, but most of them are persons, some are women, who look like business men and women. Monday morning Mrs. H. gave five of them an early breakfast—5:30 a. m.—so that they could catch the 6 o'clock stage.

Monday night Rev. Ward W. MacHenry of Ashland and Rev. A. A. Holmes of Medford gave a lecture each on the subject of the anti-saloon movement in this state. There was a good sized audience met them at the church. We also had another lecture in the church Sunday morning by a stranger, who came from Medford, but I did not meet him, as I was away from home. We also had what they called a harvest sermon Sunday night, when the farmers and gardeners brought in the products of the soil, and Rev. Lamar preached a sermon suited to the occasion.

Mr. Austin of Dudley came out Monday morning on the P. & E. train and left some of his things here. He took the stage for Butte Falls.

Mrs. Stone of Medford came up Monday and spent the day at the Sunnyside with her sister, Mrs. Clide Plymire, returning the same day. Mrs. Plymire went to Medford Tuesday.

During the past few days the old lumber shed that has been standing on the south side of the county road that runs through the town for the past two years, was torn down and moved away, and it is understood that there is to be a building put up on the ground that was previously occupied by it in the near future.

Henry French of Peyton came Monday and reports that a bear has been troubling him for some time and that he had eaten about a hundred pounds of peaches.

Trail Items

GOOD WAY TO USE

HYOMEI FOR CATARRH

Besides breathing through the inhaler a few times a day, many catarrh sufferers write that they find inhaling HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) from a bowl of steaming water each night before retiring a great aid in curing stubborn cases.

Try it; it's very simple; gives quick relief and makes you breathe easier.

Fill a bowl half full of boiling water; pour into the water a teaspoonful of HYOMEI, cover head and bowl with a towel, and breathe through nose and mouth the pleasant, medicated, antiseptic and healing vapor that arises.

This method relieves that stuffiness at once, and makes your head feel fine.

You can get a bottle of HYOMEI at Chas. Strang's and druggists everywhere, for only 50 cents. Ask for extra bottle of HYOMEI Inhaler.

But bear in mind that a HYOMEI outfit which includes Inhaler and bottle of HYOMEI costs $1.00.

HYOMEI is guaranteed by Chas. Strang and druggists everywhere to cure catarrh, sore throat, coughs, colds, asthma and croup, or money back. Try it on that generous basis.

HALSEY NOT GUILTY; INDICTMENTS DROPPED

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. —Nine remaining indictments against Thomas V. Halsey, indicted in connection with the alleged bribery of the Schmitz supervisors to vote against the Home telephone franchise, will be dismissed today, it is believed, as the result of the verdict of acquittal on the first charge which was returned late last night. Officials of the district attorney's office will confer today as to the advisability of proceeding further against Halsey before announcing their decision.

UNITED STATES TROOPS ORDERED TO CHINA

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—San is excited today over the news that United States troops at Manila were preparing to embark for China.

There is no known reason why China should ask for protection from the United States, and if it did, why the order for the sending of the troops should come from Manila. Nevertheless, the news is the chief topic of conversation here.

Officials in a position to know profess ignorance of the order.

40 OBLOODED HORSES TO APPEAR AT FAIR

PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 30.—With the entries for the fourth annual horse show of the Portland Hunt club closed, Secretary Lamson said today that 400 high class horses will be shown. The show will be held in the Oriental building on the Lewis and Clark fair grounds October 13, 14 and 15.

Many horse fanciers have secured importations of fine stock included among the blue ribbon winners of the New York and other eastern shows, and as a result competitions in the various classes this year will be keener than ever before.
