ZION LEADERS BAR OPPOSITION

Notices to Vacate Are Served Upon Three Churches Within the Sacred Precincts of Zion City by Overseer Volivia.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—What virtually amounts to notices that they shall vacate the property they occupy have been served upon three opposition churches and over sixty business men of Zion City, at the instance of General Overseer W. W. Volivia, who was expected to assume control by purchase of the Zion estate today if papers of conveyance can be completed in time. What is known as the Bryant Independent church was served with a notice of lease violation some time ago. The latest to be served are the Gift of Tongues, led by Elder J. A. Gowdy of Shetland Islands, and the so-called Christian Assembly.

The notices served at the instance of Volivia are to the effect that those served are using Zion property set aside for evidence purposes by the late John Alexander Dowie, for purposes in violation of Dowie's famous 1,000 year leases, and that unless they obey the lease provisions they must vacate.

STEAMER GOES ASHORE IN MUD

Princess Beatrice Grounded but Reported to Be in No Danger—High Tide Expected to Float Her.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 1.—The Alaska steamer Princess Beatrice is reported ashore in the vicinity of Seymour narrows. The Beatrice left Victoria last night en route for Vancouver and Alaskan points.

Agents of the Canadian Pacific railway in Seattle declare that the Princess Beatrice is in no danger. She ran aground on a mud bank this morning and will probably be pulled off at high tide and continue on her way to Vancouver.

REGISTER! DON'T GET LEFT AGAIN

Books Once Again Open to Those Who Wish to Cast Their Ballots at the General Election Held in November.

The registration books have been opened again and County Clerk Colman is ready to receive the names of all citizens who care to vote at the election this fall. The books will be open for fifteen days, when they will be closed until after election.

Every voter who desires to cast his ballot at the election this fall and whose name is not on the register, should see that his name is entered at once. Do so today. Don't put off until tomorrow, because tomorrow may be too late. Several men came in the day after the books were closed before the primary election and asked to be registered.
