

CATTLE OFFERING IN PORTLAND STRONG

NORTH PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 3.—Receipts at the Portland Union stockyards for the week ending today have been as follows: Cattle 2939, hogs 3961, sheep 5260, horses and mules 173, goats 292.

Seasonable upturns have occurred during the past week in cattle and swine trade. The cattle supply continued enormous and while the market on good steers remains firm at $5.50, the bulk of the run comprised only fair to medium heaves.

The hog market was very erratic and unsatisfactory with a general downward trend. Early transactions on Monday were made at $19.75, but the market showed signs of breaking later, and by Wednesday had dropped to $16.50.

The sheep movement this week has been enormous, as is usual at this time of the year, but the total receipts for the month just closed fall, outnumbering those of the corresponding month of last year.
