SPECIAL OFFER NOTICE.

The Mail Tribune is giving a special offer to their old subscribers. All renewed subscriptions that are paid before Saturday evening, Oct. 8, will receive the same number of votes as new subscribers. Besides receiving double votes a bonus of 50,000 extra votes will be given for every 60 months of renewal subscriptions turned into the Mail Tribune office. See display ad.

Do not wait until the last moment, but give your extension to your favorite candidate NOW. There are only four days more remaining and she will be working overtime the last day, anyway, getting those who have the PUTTING IT OFF habit born into them when there is no good reason for it.

The special ballot to which the contestants who qualify are entitled will be made out and sent to them at the end of the special offer. The regular ballots to which they are entitled for all subscriptions are issued at once.

Never in the history of such a contest has so liberal an offer been made. It is an opportunity that may mean for you the winning of one of the great prizes offered by this paper.

Of course, you have been saving your coupons for some time. Now the arduous task may be accomplished in the easiest manner imaginable, with a result which so far as votes are concerned is doubled, tripled or magnified in almost any degree imaginable. The process is simple and costs you absolutely nothing. Already, you are a subscriber to the Mail Tribune. The subscription is only reasonable that you purpose its continuance.

Simply call in or notify your choice in the great race and give her your renewal for one month, six months, one year, two years or five years, whatever the case may be, and she will be renewed with this with the contest department. It is given an extra vote ranging from 700 votes for the first mentioned period to 40,000 votes for two years and in that proportion for an indefinite period.

Those votes may mean an automobile, an upright Kimball piano, a diamond ring, a scholarship in the Ashland commercial college, or a gold watch. But action must be prompt. This offer expires Saturday, October 7, 11 p. m., and positively will not be repeated during the contest. Only one condition is imposed—that the renewal be for cash. You cannot afford to slight this golden opportunity, which, as the case in life—knocks at one's doors none too frequently. Medford's gallantry never had a better opportunity to express itself, and that your efforts will be appreciated by the candidates cannot be estimated.

Why not boost for Medford by sending the Mail Tribune to your out-of-town friends, thereby showing them what a remarkable country we have, and at the same time help some of your lady friends in the contest? Your subscription may be the means of winning some young lady one of the valuable prizes offered by the Mail Tribune.

Back Subscriptions. In answer to the many inquiries, we wish to state that back subscriptions count the same as advance paid during this offer. For example, if your subscription is in arrears six months and you pay twelve months, your time is extended six months, or twelve months from expiration, and votes issued accordingly.

Open Events. For the best of those who are not able to get to this office during business hours, the Contest Department will be open every evening until 9 o'clock.
