If your advertising is so important that it makes people suppose your store to be unimportant—work hard to correct the impression. Mary Harris Armor of Georgia moved the Philadelphia conference at Tabernacle church to the white beat of furor today. The scene was unprecedented in the more than a century's history of the body. Staid ministers were reduced to tears, then aroused to paroxysms of cheering, the cheers being delivered standing and to an accompaniment of the Chattanooga salute. The scene was capped by the singing of "My Country 'Tis of Thee."—The Evening Telegraph, Philadelphia, March 21, 1905. John Gregerson, one of the progressive German farmers of the mountain district, came to Medford Friday buying fall supplies. Although tent cities are well known to people of southern climes, visitors from the north and east are not so familiar with them. One of these latter was C. E. Grover, a prominent attorney of Chicago, who is making a tour of the west. He was in Medford the first part of the week and in Cuthbert & Co.'s tent city hotel on Oakesdale he thinks Medford has the ideal hotel. He had never seen anything like it before. Good Wear In Clothes!

You can't judge a Suit or Overcoat by the window test. It takes more than good looks to make a good garment. A good fabric may be spoiled by poor tailoring. And the very best tailoring will not make a good suit of poor fabrics. Our make of Clothes are not "half-way" garments—their label insures good materials and workmanship—and that means satisfaction. See our new styles in novelty mixtures at novel prices.
