FOOTBALL RULES ARE COMPLICATED SAYS CAMP

POTLAND, Ore., Oct. 10.—Walter Camp, the well known football authority, who is here today on "private business," admitted that the football rules of 1910 are somewhat complicated.

"In another year we hope to have them simplified," said Camp. "Our aim is to keep the game open and to lessen the quality and quantity of injury.

"Following their adoption I went to New York and met the coaches and instructors. Then I went to Cleveland, where I addressed a similar gathering of 200 men.

NOTICE

In the circuit court of the state of Oregon in and for the county of Jackson.

In the matter of the application of Kate McAndrew, as executrix of the estate of James Carr, deceased, to register title to the following described real property, situated in Jackson county, Oregon, to-wit:

TAKE NOTICE

That on the 26th day of September, A. D. 1910, an amended application was filed by the said Kate McAndrew, as executrix of the estate of James Carr, deceased, in the circuit court of Jackson county, Oregon, for the initial registration of the title of the land above described.

Now, unless you appear and answer on or before the 31st day of October, A. D. 1910, and show cause why such amended application should not be granted, the same will be taken as confessed, and a decree will be entered according to the prayer of the application, and you will be forever barred from disputing the same.

Witness my hand and the seal of the court hereto affixed this 26th day of September, A. D. 1910.

Date of the first publication of this notice is September 26, 1910.
