

Proposed Prohibition Search Law

To the Editor: Will you kindly inform me regarding that portion of the proposed statewide prohibition law which gives officials the right to search private homes, if there is such a provision, and oblige.

Section 4 of the proposed prohibition law authorizes the sheriff and constables to force open any house to search for liquor and arrest the possessor. It reads as follows:

Section 4. It is made the special duty of the district attorney to file or have filed a complaint in the circuit court of any county, or any justice's court therein against ALL HOUSES and the keepers thereof, used for the manufacture, sale or exchange OR GIFT, for the purpose of evading this law, of any kind of intoxicating liquors in any county or in any town in this state where local devices are resorted to to prevent or avoid detection of the keeper thereof, and upon such complaint being so filed describing a place where the device is kept OR SUSPECTED of being kept, and the name of the person violating this law, if known, said circuit judge or justice of the peace, or other magistrate SHALL ISSUE HIS WARRANT COMMANDING ANY SHERIFF OR CONSTABLE TO SEARCH SUCH PLACE, and if the law is being violated to arrest the person or persons so violating the law, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff or constable of the county wherein is situated any such PLACE OR HOUSE where such a device is kept, for the sale or exchange of intoxicating liquors, OR THE GIFT of the same for the purpose of evading this law, having obtained a warrant for that purpose, to demand admittance into the same, and upon admittance being refused, the sheriff or constable is hereby AUTHORIZED AND REQUIRED BY LAW TO FORCE OPEN THE SAME, and arrest and hold for trial before the courts all such persons as shall violate any of the provisions of this law.

Says LaJoie Is On Square.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—That Napoleon LaJoie obtained his eight hits at St. Louis Sunday "on the square" was the declaration today of President Walter Hedges of the St. Louis Browns, against whom Cleveland was playing.

"Third Baseman Corridon was instructed to play deep," said Hedges. "La Joie out-guessed them all by bunting seven times in succession."

President Ban Johnson of the American league is investigating.

The patronage bungle of the "pork barrel" will be partially plugged with a recommendation to senators and congressmen that they surrender a part of their appointment privileges in order that most of the government employees may be placed under the conditions of the civil service.

Other probable suggestions are for a new form of government for Alaska, the strengthening of the anti-trust laws, currency reform and changes in the law governing the issuance of injunctions without notice.

PROTESTED GAMES FORFEITED.

pose of participating in championship games after the close of the season of the league to which they are under reservation under the penalties as the national board of arbitration may prescribe. Clubs are also prohibited employing such players in any championship and a penalty of forfeiture of games in which such players participate.

Had Signed Contract.

"Hetting signed a contract with Spokane and played championship ball with that club during its playing season of 1910, which closed on or about September 25, 1910. The report of Secretary Farrell of the National association of professional leagues, shows that Hetting signed a contract with the Spokane club on September 2, 1910, and under the contract was to receive $250 a month. He was therefore ineligible to play with Portland in the games protested by Manager Wolverson.

"The defense interposed by the president and manager of the Portland club is that they have had Hetting with the Portland club for some months during the season of 1910, and that they had no knowledge of Hetting's having signed a contract with Spokane, and that they never released him and that he is on their reserve list now; and that if he did sign a contract with Spokane it is void so far as their club is concerned.

Were Given Warning.

"If Hetting be a 'contract jumper' he certainly should not be allowed to participate in championship games in this league. When my attention was directed to the objection to Hetting's playing with the Portland team I immediately notified Manager McCredie by wire not to play him until I had an opportunity to investigate the matter. The president and manager of the Portland club, disregarding my advice, continued to play Hetting. They cannot now complain that they did not receive ample notice.

"It is regrettable that this incident should arise at the close of the most successful season that the Pacific Coast league has ever enjoyed and it is particularly unfortunate that it should happen when the race between the Portland and Oakland clubs is so exciting. I fully appreciate that the law, as well as the baseball loving people, abhors forfeitures, and that we all desire to see every game, which includes the law as well as baseball, won on its merits. But, where there are rules laid down for our guidance, they must be adhered to.

Must Follow Rules.
"The only way by which our great national game, in which millions of people are interested, can be fostered, and protected, is to play the game

according to the rules surrounding it with such safeguards as will warrant absolute public confidence in its integrity and methods. It is immaterial to me who wins the pennant; my one aim, since I assumed the presidency of this league, is to see that good, fair, clean and honest baseball is played by all our teams.

"My duty in deciding the protest filed by Manager Wolverson is plain. Hetting was clearly ineligible to play with Portland and it is therefore ordered that the games in which he participated on September 28, 29 and 30, 1910, be forfeited to the Oakland baseball club.

(Signed.)
"THOMAS F. GRAHAM,
"President Pacific Coast Baseball League."
