Will Help You to Win!

DEAR CANDIDATE:

Your last chance to get extra votes.
The management of the Mail Tribune has decided to make one more FINAL SPECIAL OFFER for NEW SUBSCRIBERS. This is positively the LAST CHANCE during this contest to get extra votes.
For one week, six days, the Mail Tribune will give to every contestant 100,000 EXTRA VOTES for every ten NEW subscribers turned into the Mail Tribune office between Monday morning, October 17, and Saturday evening, October 22, 1910. The new subscribers to count on this offer must be people who are not subscribers now getting the Daily Mail Tribune.
The only restriction on this offer is that the ten new subscriptions must average three months each. For example, if you turn in eight new one month subscriptions and two new one year subscriptions you will be entitled to the 100,000 EXTRA VOTES. Or if you turn in ten NEW three months subscriptions to the Daily Mail Tribune you will be entitled to the 100,000 EXTRA VOTES! This offer is for NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE DAILY MAIL TRIBUNE ONLY.
You surely know ten friends who are not taking the Mail Tribune, and who would willingly take it for three months each. This is positively the most liberal vote giving offer of the contest—this is opportunity week. Subscribers to the Weekly Mail Tribune and changing to the Daily will count in this offer.
This is the last BONUS OFFER of the contest and it will pay you to take advantage of it to the fullest extent.

All old subscribers of the Weekly paying their arrearages, changing to the DAILY, will be considered new subscribers and ballots issued accordingly.

This is an opportunity to obtain a great many extra votes by a little effort. The subscriptions should not be held back until the last day, but turned in as secured.
An accurate account will be kept by the Contest Manager of all subscriptions turned in during this offer and the EXTRA BALLOT will mailed to the contestants after this offer closes.
Address CONTEST DEPARTMENT, Medford Mail Tribune, Medford, Oregon.
Contest closes October 29, 1910.

Bargain Period of Contest.

This will truly be the bargain period of the great Popular Voting Contest. A little extra effort enough votes may be secured to build up an impressive reserve. Many candidates have given us the assurance that they are going to work the next five days and work hard. Do not let your competitor get the subscriptions in your locality pledged before you awake to the proposition.
More votes will be issued this week, undoubtedly, than in all the previous weeks put together. And why not? This special vote offer is the best in Medford yet, and those who do not take advantage of it can readily see that they will lose the opportunity of the race.

Special Offer Ballot.

Contestant is restricted as to the number of times she may qualify for this offer. If she is able to secure 20 new subscribers during these five days, she can do so and will receive a ballot of 200,000 votes, or in proportion to the number turned in. The larger the number of new subscribers you may be able to secure, the larger your special offer ballot will be.
The voting the last few days was very heavy indeed. Every candidate is working hard and straining every nerve to get out. You would be surprised to know how the reserve votes are piling up. Contestants are entreaching themselves for the final struggle. You must work to win.
The contest has been running over six weeks and less than two more weeks remain before the ballot box closes for the last time.
A glance at the standing of the contestants is the best possible evidence of the way interest is being aroused here.
Get every available subscription NOW and let the end of the race take care of itself. There is one thing which always succeeds in a contest of this kind and that is the staying quality. Those who have entered the contest with the determination of staying with it to the end are going to come out victorious. Some of the candidates think it is a good plan to be in the lead at this stage of the game and are drawing heavily on their reserve to get there. Votes go out daily to people who are not interested directly in the contest and they generally cast their ballots for the candidates who stand well in their district. A reserve is a good thing to have, but the leadership is also a worthy ambition and votes cast from day to day are not lost by any means, as they all count in the final "show-down".
Do not wait for others to get the votes, but start today and make up for any time you may have lost waiting for others to vote for you.
These beautiful prizes are surely worth a strenuous effort on your part. The girl who is wise enough to realize that a new subscriber will bring her just twice as many votes as an old one, is the one who will stand a far better chance of winning these beautiful prizes at the close of the contest.
Any number of girls tell the contest manager they do not care for the first or second prizes but what they are in the contest for is to win one of the scholarships. It is very commendable for any young lady to want to seek a business education and her friends should lend their assistance by buying their arrears or in advance for the paper and give her the votes to which they are entitled.

Open Evenings.
For the benefit of those who are not able to come to this office during business hours the contest department will be open every evening until 9 o'clock.

AN OLD-TIME PRESCRIPTION

In a modern product. From time immemorial sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost every one knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair and making it grow. In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready to use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. Such a preparation is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, which is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or which is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.
