It seems to have become the fashion of arrested persons to make a fight just as they reach the jail. Three times in the past two days have officers been resisted just as they were landing their prisoners, but so far the officers have had the best of it. One had undertook to do business with Chief Shearer and Policeman Hinton Thursday forenoon. He had previously stated that he was a ring fighter, but evidently, life Jeff he couldn't come back. He scratched the chief's nose and landed on Hinton's block a couple of times, when the latter, forgetting all about the Queensbury rules, got the gentleman's head in "chance" and handed him a few that caused him to become much less bellicose.

Mrs. Eugene Amann and Mrs. Phipps left Friday morning for Myrtle Creek, O., to spend a few weeks with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayte of Salt Lake City are registered at the Moore.

C. W. Crary and V. L. Foray of Astoria are among the recent arrivals at the Nash. They are looking for a location in southern Oregon.

L. E. Neidemeir just received a new gasoline engine and a 10 gang plow, which he will use to turn over the earth at his place west of the city. The outfit is the finest that is on the market and will plow about 40 acres a day. W. H. Gore has one of these outfits and finds that it is a very great success. Hubbard Bros. sold the outfit to Mr. Neidemeir and were busily engaged in transferring the same from the cars Wednesday.

Darby O'Toole returned Friday from a trip across the big pond. "It was a great time I had in the old country," said Darby, "but it's glad I am to get back to Medford. The Rogue River valley looks better to me than ever, an' here I stay."

Eugene Savage of Gold Hill was a Medford visitor Friday. Gene has a reputation among the millmen of southern Oregon of being one of the best saw filers who ever laid a file on a sawtooth or shoved a planer bit over an emery wheel, but he has returned to the simple life, and now Mr. and Mrs. Savage are growing orchard and garden truck on their ranch near Gold Hill, and say both of them, "making more money with less work than before."

W. C. Connor of Ashland was in Medford on a business trip Friday.

M. F. Hanley was in Medford on business Friday.

E. B. Hanley was in Medford Friday from his orchard farm west of the city.

OSMSTEAD & HIBBARD

"IN ARIZONA" AT THE MEDFORD SATURDAY

In "Arizona," an American play by an American author and played by American players, Mr. Augustus Thomas has written what critics have unanimously pronounced the greatest dramatic success that America has seen in a generation. It teems with life and action, the dash of cowboy frolics, the military duties, while the atmosphere is so subtle and real that one can almost catch the breath of the sage brush and cactus, and feel the sting of the alkali dust in one's nostrils.

The amnagement has spared neither time, labor nor expense in giving "Arizona" a worthy representation. The scenery and dressing of the play are not only beautiful and impressive, but wonderfully complete and accurate even to the minutest detail, while the superb muster a long roll of the best artists on the American stage.

"Arizona" will be seen at the Medford theater Saturday, October 22.

Big Comedy at the Medford.
A breezy, sparkling comedy show, "Is Marriage a Failure?" will be the attraction at the Medford theater Friday, October 21. It is said to be a play of unusual entertaining qualities and abounding in genuine humor.

The story has to do with a married man who tries to decide for himself, in this he is assisted by a number of other characters who are equally anxious to find the answer to do the same perplexing question. The plot is cleverly drawn and allows scope for an unlimited amount of fun. While it is highly entertaining and enjoyable it is free from all vulgarity and is a refined and merry comedy of the up to date variety. The action takes place in New York City and all the characters are Americans.

PRISONER HAS A QUITE A LONG REACH

Frank Chaplin, who was arrested by Policeman Kincaid and Memsie Wednesday, was fined $50 or 25 days in the county jail by Justice Canon Wednesday morning. He was more or less inebriated—probably more than less—when taken in charge. He went along peaceably enough until he reached the jail, when as Memsie was searching him he got on the war-path. He made a wild swing at Memsie, but Joe was watching the game and ducked. Harry forgot to duck and the blow landed on his jaw. "They might call that an assault without a dangerous weapon," said one of the spectators at the trial as he sized up Chaplin's biceps and his hands, "but they look mighty dangerous to me. Beside that a fellow never would know when he was out of reach of a man six feet six and with a length of arms accordingly. Chaplin was taken to Jacksonville to serve his 25 days.
