PASSMORE TRIO HERE ON MONDAY

Of the art of the Passmore Trio, playing is musicianly and delightful that group of American artists who are to be heard in concert at the new Natatorium auditorium Monday evening, October 24, the critics of this country have much to say. Commenting upon their work during one which has been accorded them in every American city in which the Passmore's have appeared. The present is their first American tour. It will, before its termination, include every large city and music center in the United States and Canada. The Passmore's are under the concert direction of Fitzpatrick & Norwood, managers of Tilly Koenen, the great contralto, Haroldi, the Polish violinist, and other celebrities. Unusual interest has been taken in the forthcoming Passmore concert in this city, and an immense audience is already assured. The sale of seats begins at Haskins' Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

of their Chicago recitals, Karleton Hackett, writing in the Evening Post, said:

"These young women are late of Berlin and they play delightfully. Miss Dorothy, the cellist, has a broad and beautiful tone and draws song from her instrument. Miss Suzanne, the pianist, plays with a musical touch, clear, clean technique and with great intelligence. The same is to be said of the violinist. As a trio they rank high, indeed. Their playing of the third and fourth variations of the Tschaiikowsky trio was charming, with feeling for the meaning and an ensemble that brought out its beauty. The finale they took with lots of dash. Their ception is but a repetition of that which has been accorded them in every American city in which the Passmore's have appeared. The present is their first American tour. It will, before its termination, include every large city and music center in the United States and Canada. The variety of trees in your orchard is of vast importance. When your orchard is in bearing it should produce marketable fruit, the kind that is in demand in the market and the kind for which this district is famous.

We have 6500 acres of orchard land, which includes nearly every kind of soil represented in the valley, and every acre of this land carries with it a perpetual water right in the Rogue River Valley Canal Company.

OUR PAYMENT PLAN
