PERSIA IS SOON TO BE DIVIDED

England and Russia Each to Take Half, Although Czar Is Known to Be Working for the Major Part of the Territory.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The division of Persia between Great Britain and Russia is expected to be announced shortly. It was reported today that the reply of the Persian minister to the British foreign officers expressing the attitude toward Persia had been received. It is understood that Germany is supporting Persia.

That Russia has ambitions sinister to the continued predominance of English rule in India is believed to be one of the circumstances behind the latest move in the near east. Russian pre-eminence in Persian councils is well known and the fact that Russia is financing and policing a railroad from Teheran to the Persian gulf, giving Russia a rival sea-port to Great Britain on the Indian ocean, leads to the belief that Russia seeks the lion's share in the foreshadowed dissolution of the shah's domain.

SKIPPER REFUSES TO LEAVE WRECKED SHIP

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Because steadfastly refused to leave his ship and is now drifting somewhere toward the Gulf of Mexico, waiting for a tow, Captain E. E. Walls of Hallowell, Maine, is being called the "gamest" skipper on the Atlantic today.

Although he knows that his boat, the Hollistwood, is water logged and that it is a miracle that she has kept together for five days after a buffetting by the most severe storm the gulf region has experienced in years, Captain Walls told his crew, who were taken off the ship last Monday, by the steamer Herald, that he would stay with his vessel until it went down or was towed ashore.

The last seen of a Captain Walls by his departing crew he was clinging to the capstan waving farewell.

WELL KNOWN GRANTS PASS WOMAN DEAD

Mrs. A. E. Voorhies, wife of the publisher of the Daily and Weekly Courier at Grants Pass, died at the family residence at 10:30 on Sunday evening, October 23, of Bright's disease. She had been a great sufferer for many months, but her courage kept her about, and it was not until two weeks ago that she allowed herself to remain in bed, but even then she made an effort to overcome every weakness and appear cheerful before her family and friends, and up to the very last moment she bore up, never for a moment giving way to what her husband and others knew was the inevitable. When the last hour came she seemingly enjoyed a peaceful slumber, which lasted an hour or more, when she silently passed to the other side. In her life and death she illustrated Christian character of the highest order, always cheerful, always loving and tender of the feelings of others.

Her funeral will take place from the family residence, 201 B street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Robert McLean officiating. The interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

WOMAN'S DOGS GO WITH HER TO MARRIAGE ALTAR

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The widely heralded marriage of Mrs. Schley Bowen of San Francisco and Perry Evans of Seattle, instead of being a spectacle today, became a fizzle.

When word went forth that the dashing San Francisco widow was again to become a bride society speculated on how the fair lady could possibly be separated from three spaniels to which she was devoted. The lady solved the problem by selecting the dogs to act as bridesmaids.

When the Rev. E. L. Copefield solemnly began the marriage service the canine bridesmaids began howling. The flood of dorgy grief disconcerted the minister, who forgot his lines and was compelled to hurriedly seek the place in the prayer book where he had been interrupted.

The dogsmaids, or bridesdogs, refused to be consoled. They were strung together on a silken leash held by the bride, and when called upon to desist, sought refuge by cowering in the folds of the bride's gown.

Becoming flustered by the continued delay, F. H. Hurdleby, the groomsmen, seized the spaniels by the seats of their Japanese frocks and hoisted them into a deserted corner, where an usher attempted to silence their whines.

9-Beautiful Prizes-9

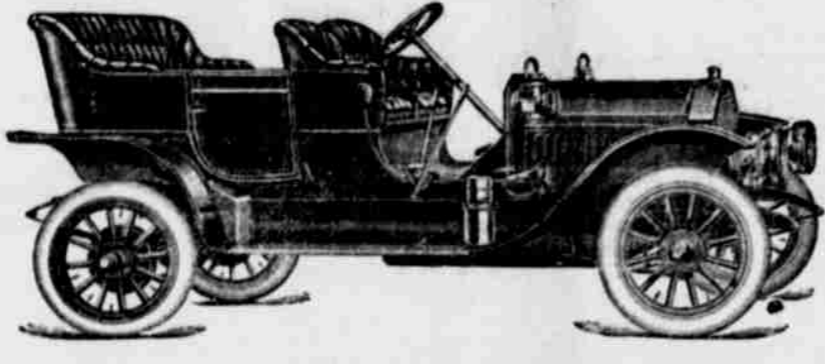

Given Away by The Mail Tribune, Saturday, October 29, 1910.

Price, $1150 f. o. b. factory, including oil lamps, tail lamp, generator, gas headlights, horn and repair outfit. This is a valuable prize and the lady winning may well be proud of it.

Work and Win

No doubt can exist that the nine prizes which the Mail Tribune offer as rewards to the young ladies entered in the Great Popular Contest are not happily chosen. These prizes will give immense satisfaction to the winners, and the Mail Tribune would not consider offering such prizes if this satisfaction were not already assured.

The lady receiving the highest number of votes in each district will be awarded one of these beautiful instruments. The district having the highest number of votes will have the choice of the two pianos.

Two $100 Diamond Rings

Diamond Rings—The lady having second highest votes in each district will be awarded a beautiful $100 Diamond Ring. Everyone knows the value of a diamond, and the stones given by the Mail Tribune are beautiful and fully worth $100 each. The rings can be seen any time at Reddy's Jewelry Store and Van De Car's Jewelry Store. One diamond being on display at each store.

Two Fine Pianos

The two pianos given away by the Mail Tribune are now on display. The Kimball $560 Piano purchased from Eilers' Music house can be seen any day in the window of Weeks & McGowan Co.'s furniture store on West Main street. The $400 Style F Cable & Nelson piano purchased from Hale's Music house is on display at Hale's store rooms at corner of Tenth and Oakdale.

Two Business Scholarships

Business Scholarships—One lady in each district will be awarded a six months' business scholarship in the Ashland Commercial College. Students graduating from the Ashland Commercial College are always sure of a position. A business education is desired by nearly all young people.
