

TACOMA ANTI-SWEAR ORDINANCE FAILS

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 27.—The anti-swear ordinance is not on the city statistics today because several members of the municipal commission argued that the "cousin bill," if passed, would curtail their personal rights and was therefore not according to the constitution which declares for "liberty in the pursuit of happiness."

The proposed ordinance was drafted by a member of the commission. The intent of the ordinance was to stop swearing on the street and the commission at once voted to kill it.

City Attorney Baker got busy, however, in spite of the measure, and the commission reconsidered its action to the extent that the bill is tabled for next meeting, with small prospects of being adopted.

NEW MANAGER FOR SHERMAN-CLAY HOUSE

Sherman Clay & Co. are to be congratulated in the selection of J. H. Roehr as manager for their local branch.

The house of Sherman Clay & Co. have a very nice location and the room is tastily finished and decorated. They carry a first-class stock of high-grade pianos, including the celebrated Steinway.

Mr. Roehr comes to Medford well recommended and it is predicted that he will manage the affairs of the company in the very best possible manner. He is of a pleasing disposition, magnetic to a marked degree, courteous to every one at all times and on all occasions and has already made a host of friends during his incumbency as assistant to Mr. Holt. Mr. Roehr is a thorough piano man and knows all the ins and outs of the business.

Again we state that Sherman Clay & Co. are to be congratulated in securing a man who will use judgment and common sense at all times—one who will play the part of a gentleman on all occasions, one who will give others credit for knowing a little something, one who will seek at all times to deserve all the business a generous and appreciative public can give to a worthy house and one that will not allow his head to grow out of all proportions to his brains. Sherman, Clay & Co. have the pianos that are sure to give you satisfaction and now that they have a first-class man representing them here, it is predicted that they will do a fine business.

Morrison Fails Again.
