

Eagle Point Eaglets

—By—
A. C. Howlett.

Last Sunday Mesdames Jess Spencer, Harvey Spencer, Reed and Nalley, all of Dudley, who are working in the Washburn orchard, came over on the P. & E. car to visit Mrs. Howlett and attend to a little business. They said that they expected to be through in about two weeks and that then they wanted me to meet them with a big hayrack instead of a carriage.

Last Sunday I was called on to take Irvin Daley and wife and a young man by the name of Stewart, whose father has charge of the Natatorium, up about a mile above Brownsboro. Mrs. Daley was going to visit her mother and Irvin and Mr. Stewart were going hunting for bear. When I reached home I found E. D. Briggs, G. S. Butler, E. Piel and A. E. Kenny, all of Ashland. They had been up to Brownsboro to see some property that belongs to Mr. Briggs and had phoned to the Sunnyside for dinner.

The young folks in this neighborhood and quite a number from up the creek met at the dance hall last Saturday night, and judging from the crowd of young folks that greeted me Sunday morning when I came down stairs there must have been a good-sized crowd, and they expressed themselves as well pleased with the party.

Work is progressing with the P. & E. depot here, and there is considerable inquiry for houses and lots on which to build, and from present appearances there will be much more building here next season than there has been this, although there are several buildings in the course of construction now.

There is a force of carpenters at work on Frank Nichols' house, another on Mr. Stewart's, another on Kincaid & Ashpole's, another on A. B. Zimmerman's, another on George Von der Hellen's, another putting up a water tower and tank for the Sunnyside hotel, besides several small jobs in the line of repairing, etc.

Cottle & Daley have just finished a cement walk for Mrs. Howlett. They have also just finished a neat stone wall for William Von der Helson and one for A. J. Daley and done some cement work for Gus Nichols. In fact, everybody is busy and seem to be prospering.

Last Tuesday A. Tackstrom of Medford came out and hired your correspondent to take him up to his ranch, the Jack Anderson place, on the head of Lake creek, that he recently purchased. He remained with us over Wednesday, looking around with a view of locating among us, as he fell greatly in love with our town and its surroundings.

Benj. Kinney and wife came out from Medford Tuesday eve and the next day went up to Carl Von der Hellen's. They were also guests at the Sunnyside hotel. I understand that he is going to cut a lot of wood and have it sawed up for the Medford market.

A man by the name of Pepper came in Tuesday and is stopping here. He has a 20-acre tract of land on the Stoddard place and wants to improve it this fall.

Miss Hazel Dean of Medford came out Wednesday to visit Mrs. Clyde Plymire, who is rooming with us.

A. H. Thomson of Lake creek is engaged painting George Von der Hellen's new house.

Joe Moomaw has men fixing up his old house that he formerly lived in for a woodshed and carriage house.

James Ringer, who was hurt some time ago by having a roof of a porch fall on him, has gone to Medford to try to get medical aid, as he is still suffering from the effects of the accident.

Mrs. Wilson of Dudley came in Wednesday eve on the P. & E. car on her way home. She has been up in Washington visiting her daughter, who lives in Spokane, and while there visiting hurt her hand in some way and blood poisoning set in and she was in a very critical condition for several weeks, but we are glad to be able to say that now she is considered out of danger.

C. W. Austin of Dudley also came in Wednesday, also Jess Spencer and John Higinbotham, besides a large number of strangers are here looking for homes, etc.

BRYAN TO SPEAK AGAINST BOY MAYOR

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 27.—William J. Bryan will speak here Monday night against Mayor Dahlman of Omaha, the democrat gubernatorial candidate. At the outset of the campaign Bryan offered to speak in favor of all the democratic nominees with the exception of Dahlman. The state committee declined the offer.

Bryan rented the Auditorium this afternoon for Monday night and it is believed he intends to flay Dahlman. Bryan personally is paying the bills. The democratic leaders hastily conferred to frame a plan to counteract the effect of the Bryan meeting, fearing trouble, although Dahlman is a favorite here in spite of Bryan's opposition.

The union service (Presbyterian and Christian) at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening proved to be a very enjoyable service. The house was well filled and Dr. Balfee delivered a very interesting address and report of the work of the synod recently in session at Pendleton.

We are glad to note the fraternal and Christian feeling between the churches at Phoenix. Following last Sunday's union service at the Presbyterian church will be a like service at the Christian church.

For next Sunday evening the pastor, T. F. Rawlins, has announced special music for the evening and a sermon on "Hell's Commerce."

Phoenix' new commercial firm, Phoenix Commercial company, seems to be doing quite a rushing business. Mr. Coleman, the new partner in the firm, takes hold of the work like an old hand at the wheel.

Phoenix has purchased lots for water works and will soon sink wells on the property to test the water supply. If this is satisfactory, I am informed that the town will soon be asked to vote bonds to put in the plant. So we advance.

Pearl and Earle Hover and Miss Fay Carver, Phoenix young folks, attending the high school at Ashland, were at home and attended the Christian church last Sunday.

Mr. Fisher, who has served the people of Phoenix so long and so faithfully as merchant, postmaster and general business man, is now a gentleman of leisure, having sold his interest in the business firm of Fisher, Hearne & Co. to Mr. Coleman. He seems like the proverbial "fish out of water," or rather he is now a fisher without a fishery.

Ralph Cox and wife leave us this week for their new home near Junction City. The removal of this class of people is a very great loss both to church and community. We regret very much to have them leave us, but as they must go, wish them a pleasant home and success in their new field.

To the readers and subscribers of the Intelligencer we wish to say that the world is going too fast, and Phoenix is too much of a hustling, rustling town for a monthly to meet our needs, so we have arranged with the Mail Tribune to edit this column of Phoenix items, which will reach you weekly or oftener. We regret very much to discontinue the Intelligencer, but we feel able to carry just now. We hope to make this department interesting and helpful to our people. We will receive your subscription if you wish to take the paper.

HOW TO STOP DRINKING.

It was formerly customary for the habitual drinker to take the pledge regularly, sometimes once a year, and sometimes in every fit of remorse that followed his debauches, and then break it.

But now it is gradually dawning on the world that pledges do not stop drunkenness. The nervous system of the habitual drinker is dis-

10 acre Orchard Tracts

We have a few ten-acre tracts and one 40-acre tract yet unsold; 40-acre tract has Beautiful Oak grove for building sites, good house, barn, windmill, gasoline engine and everything convenient; there is no better land in the Rogue River Valley; no better location for an ideal home. If you want a good piece of land or beautiful home, see our one-acre tracts in the big Oak grove. Prices are lower than anything in the valley, considering location and quality of soil. Call on J. A. Perry, owner, or have your agent show you these tracts.

Butte Falls Items

As it is about definitely settled, according to railroad reports, that the Pacific & Eastern railway will reach Butte Falls about the 6th of November of the present year, it appears to your correspondent that some suitable expression of this important event should be made, and it is suggested that Medford and Butte Falls unite in a fitting celebration of this occasion. We have a few enterprising citizens classed among the progressives who are willing and ready to lend their efforts and do what they can toward making this a memorable affair, and especially should the Medford citizens act in this matter, as it means so much to them and their city. We hope that when the first train leaves Medford for Butte Falls it will be crowded with people, and their interest shown in appreciating the completion of the initial step in an enterprise that will be the making of Rogue River valley. Medford boosters will find an ample field for their efforts and as they develop and improve the section along and contiguous to the railway so they will promote and advance their own local interests. The town is rapidly growing and with the development of the enterprises around there is nothing to prevent Butte Falls from becoming an important center of trade and a profitable feeder to Medford. We have waited so long and patiently for the completion of this road, and now that it is ready for freight and passenger traffic, let us display our push and enterprise. We have two hotels here and it might be arranged that a banquet be given to the railroad officials and a jolly good time enjoyed during their stay. If Medford will take hold of this move the citizens of Butte Falls will aid them in every way. We should not let this opportunity pass without some open expression of our manifest interest. Let us hear from Medford, as the time is short, and what is to be done must be done quickly.

John B. Edsall and wife have leased their large ranch to William Perry, who will crop it the coming year. Mr. Edsall and family will remove to Phoenix or some other point in the valley.

Dr. Stewart has opened dental parlors in the bank building and is now prepared to attend to all dental work.

J. Wharton, who has been visiting in California, has returned and is now located in Butte Falls.

U. S. Morris has gone to Medford to engage with Eads Bros., and will be gone all the winter.

Mr. Downs of Willow creek section is visiting with his mother, who is residing in Butte Falls.

Mr. Brainhard has moved into his new home, which he has lately completed.

Mr. Spencer of the unsurveyed lands has been in town trading with our merchants.

Gus Edmonson and a party of friends, who have been hunting, have returned and had excellent luck in securing several deer.

It is rumored that a contract will soon be let for lumber for the depot and other railroad buildings near this point.

Messrs. Ford & Wright contemplate opening a hardware store in the building which they will soon erect on their newly purchased lot on the east side of the park.

Phoenix and Vicinity

(This column is conducted and edited by T. F. Rawlins in the interest of the people of Phoenix and vicinity and is intended to take the place of the Intelligencer, of which he was the editor. Any communication for this department should be addressed to T. F. Rawlins, Phoenix.)

This is an age of combinations and combines as well as of specialists. Few papers we published now that are strictly secular and few that are wholly religious.

This is especially true of the more advanced and up-to-the-minute publications. The editor of this column does not propose to conduct a "religious department" in the Mail Tribune, but in representing the interest of his community he will endeavor to put first things first rather than last or not at all. Hence, church and state columns will deal with both the religious and secular interest of the community.

Next to the church stands our school interests, and we are glad to be able to report good work and good results in the school at Phoenix. We ers' institute at Grants Pass and re-have one of the handsomest and best school buildings for the size of the town in Oregon. We have a consecrated force of teachers and as studious and noisy a band of children as is generally found. There were 63 pupils neither absent nor tardy last month.

Enrollment last month, 626.

Tests were given in all the grades of the school last Thursday and Friday, it being the close of the month, and all seemed to be doing good work. The school has recently added to its library a Thesaurus Dictionary of the English language. This is a new work.

Mrs. Stanard has recently purchased an organ for her room, which the children enjoy very much and which is very helpful in her musical department in song and in the march.

Professor and Mrs. Stanard and Miss Magnus and Miss Fish, all Phoenix teachers, attended the teachers' a splendid time and work. They enter upon their work with renewed interest and zeal.

Cottolene

Your children can eat Cottolene made cookies and other pastry because it never makes food greasy as does lard, and the stomach can easily assimilate and digest it.

Lard is an animal product—just plain hog fat.

Cottolene is a vegetable product—made from pure, refined cotton oil—and every bit as digestible and nourishing as olive oil.

Cottolene makes food which any stomach can digest, and builds up the tissues of the body.

Let your children eat all they want of food cooked with Cottolene. It won't harm them!
