

THE MAIL TRIBUNE'S GIGANTIC CONTEST CLOSES TOMORROW NIGHT

Do Not Hold Your Subscription Until Last Minute-- Send Them in at Once and Avoid the Rush of the Last Day--Those Mailed After 12 o'Clock Saturday Night are of no Value.

VOTING IS PROGRESSING AT A FURIOUS CLIP

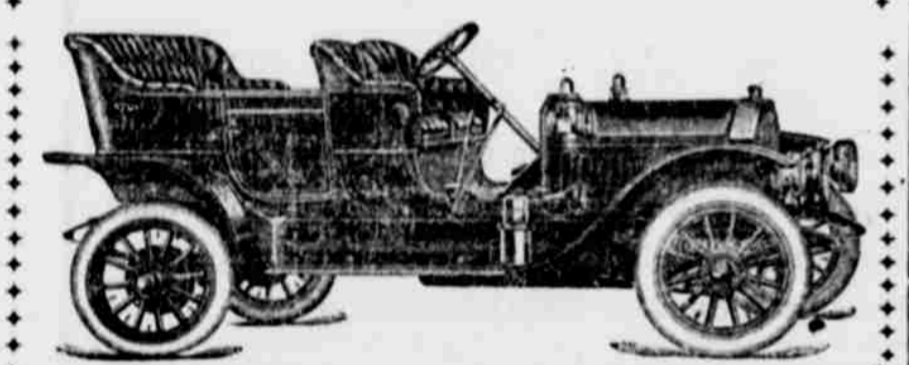

Rumors of the Number of Votes Different Candidates Have are Ripe Today--Do Not Allow These Rumors to Frighten You From Winning a Prize.

PROMINENT MEN NAMED AS JUDGES.

The following well-known citizens of Medford will conduct the final counting of the votes and decide who the winners of the prizes in the various districts will be. The key to the ballot box is now in the possession of Mr. Orth, who will break the seals and open the box, and final count will then be conducted in view of every one:

- JOHN A. ORTH, Cashier, Medford National Bank.
- W. H. MCGOWAN, of the Weeks & McGowan Furniture Co.
- WILLIAM ISAACS, President of The Toggery.

CAPITAL PRIZE MAIL TRIBUNE CONTEST.

Five-Passenger Buick, Toy Tonneau, Model 10, without the top, just as shown in picture, will be given away Saturday evening. The votes from your subscription may be the means of some young lady winning this car.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

In order to give the contestants in the territory outside of the city the same amount of time to work for the extra votes as the girls in the city, the management will accept all subscriptions mailed before 12 o'clock midnight, Saturday, October 29, but the envelope or package in which the subscriptions are sent must bear the postmark of the date and hour mailed, together with the postmaster's name and date written on the outside of envelope.

It will be all over Saturday night but the shouting.

There is no telling who will do the shouting. The contest manager doesn't know. Neither does anybody else. Rumors of what such and such a candidate has in the way of votes will be rife, but they should be treated as rumors. A candidate may know what she has, but it is very certain that nobody else will know.

For all the contest manager knows some of the candidates who were not in the race may have seen their names on votes to give them a prominent place. And they may still be in the also ran class.

But, speaking of rumors, there were rumors of dark horses yesterday that conditions in some districts were such that a candidate with enough votes for a start would be wanting in spirit if she did not go after the top prizes in a case where somebody was lying down with the idea that it was all over, that she had the auto won, and there was nothing to do but wait for the distribution of the prizes. Some wise candidates far down in the list have seen their opportunity, and are taking advantage of it.

The contest manager knows nothing about the details of these fresh starts that are being made, but he was not surprised.

This is no time for sitting down in the fond belief that the contest is all over. The time is not yet ripe for playing on one of those world-renowned Kipling or Cable and Nelson pianos, and the girl who thinks now that it is pretty time to take a little rest from the five-passenger Buick automobile is due for an awakening. The contest will not be over in any district until the polls close at 12 o'clock Saturday night.

One Day Left.

With but one day left before the popular voting contest will be at a close, the interest is intense, and all of the candidates and their friends are breathlessly awaiting the end of the big battle of votes. Almost all are confident of victory and those who are not now ahead are sure of forging to the front at the window by virtue of the reserve votes which they have up their sleeves.

The great contest has now come to a question of hours, and from today only two of them remain. This great good-natured battle of votes has brought up more interest than any other contest in mercantile or journalistic fields ever inaugurated in Southern Oregon. Thousands and thousands of people are interested in the outcome, and from the fact that votes and subscriptions have come in from thousands of miles around is evidence that the contest is not confined only to the immediate vicinity of Medford.

The contest has, indeed, been an exciting one, and the real tug-of-war is yet to come. This will be enacted Saturday evening, and every man, woman and child in Medford and the surrounding country will wait expectantly for the result.

Be an Optimist for One Day.

The difference between the Optimist and the Pessimist is droil: The Optimist eats the doughnut. The Pessimist gnaws the hole.

If there ever was a city or a time when optimism and prosperity went hand in hand, that city is Medford; that time is now, and five years from now Medford will be one of the leading cities of the Pacific coast, and the close-in residence lots that I am selling on East Main street will be the choicest residence part of the city. Now selling at $600 to $900 per lot. Let us talk to you and show you the property. It will pay you.

The Famous Rayo

Gives the Best Light at Any Price

When you pay more than the Rayo price for a lamp, you are paying for extra decorations that cannot add to the quality of the light. You can't pay for a better light, because there is none. An oil light has the least effect on the human eye, and the Rayo Lamp is the best oil lamp made, though low in price. You can pay $5, $10, or $20 for some other lamp, and although you get a more costly lamp, you can't get a better light than the white, mellow, diffused, unflinching light of the low-priced Rayo.

Has a strong, durable shade-holder. This season's burner adds to the strength and appearance. Made of solid brass, milled, and easily polished.
