BOTTOM DROPS OUT OF WHEAT

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 29.—The bottom dropped out of the local wheat market today, and at the close club was offered at 48 cents, with no takers. Bluestem brought 71 1-2 to 2 cents and there were buyers at those prices. Offerings were heavy, the farmers being thrown in a state of semi-panic by the drop. Forty thousand bushels of club were offered this afternoon at 67 cents, but no dealer would buy. The sales today amounted to some 85,000 bushels and were limited only by the refusal of buyers to load up.

JERSEYVILLE, Ill., Oct. 29.—Awakening after an unusually sound night's sleep, Mrs. Letha Derby of this city was amazed to find that more than half of her hair had been cut off and carried away during the night.
So deftly as the work done and so careful was the hand that wielded the razor or shears not to touch that part of her hair on which she was sleeping that Mrs. Derby was not awakened.

WOMAN FASTS FOR 50 DAYS

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Charging that the garment workers' employers are hiring thugs to slug women strikers and that the police are aiding them, the Women's Trade Union league today asked 50 society girls to volunteer to get evidence of brutality and urge wealthy friends to undertake prosecution of the guilty.
Conditions in the Jewish quarter are becoming pitiful, and destitution among the families of the unemployed strikers is increasing. Other unions have undertaken relief work and the collection of funds with which to relieve the growing distress.
