

PERSONAL ITEMS

Wanted—Two tallymen to work in retail lumber yard. Big Pines Lumber Co. 194* John Simondson of Lexington, Ky. is here looking over the valley. Try one of those home cooked meals at 42 South Bartlett at 25c. Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Eaton of Grants Pass were Medford visitors Monday. Fifty-three acres special, 10 acres coming into bearing orchard. Call on J. B. Wood, Condon Water & Power Co.'s office. The "kids" were pretty quiet Halloween night, nothing more serious than the swiping of a number of gates and signs and putting a few boxes in the street having been reported. Is your louse wired? One cigar less a day would pay for a hundred per cent increase in comfort. Start living the electric life. Mrs. F. A. Rouser and Mrs. W. R. Hudson of Montague, Cal., spent a few days in Medford this week. Every light but electricity gives off smoke and smoke contains soot which deposits on your wall paper, curtains, draperies. Electric light glows in an air tight bulb. F. E. Krohn of Roseburg was a Medford visitor Monday. Dr. Stephenson, graduate optician, fits glasses to correct any defect of the eye. Office over Allen & Reagan's. Phone Main 1851. 212 Mr. and Mrs. Pezone of Eagle Point were Medford visitors Monday. Frank J. Miller of Albany is visiting in Medford. H. W. Baldwin of Klamath Falls was a Medford visitor Tuesday on business. Mr. Baldwin is one of the rising young business men of the growing city at the Falls. H. H. Penn of Eagle Point was in Medford Tuesday. The ladies of St. Mark's Guild will hold a reception in the church parlors in St. Mark's building on Thursday evening, November 3. The church people and all those interested in the church are cordially invited. 194 O. A. Hubbard is in the city from his farm in the Big Butte section. S. W. McClendon of Gold Hill was a Medford visitor Tuesday on a business visit. John Pernoll of Applegate was in Medford Tuesday as a witness in the Luman deer slaying case. Mr. Pernoll is the elder brother of "Jud" Pernoll, who jumped "in two years ba yimminy" from the brush of southern Oregon to the "tall timber" of the American league. Incidentally John bears upon his hands visible tokens of his brother's prowess in putting the "pill" over. Those battered fingers and knuckles don't cut any figure with Johnny Pernoll, however, so long as "Jud" makes good, and the kid has all that appearance. District Attorney Mulkey left for Grants Pass Tuesday morning to take charge of some prosecution brought under the pure food law. He will probably be at that point a' the week. Henry C. Wilson of Ashland spent Tuesday in Medford on business. W. J. King of Woodville was a recent visitor in Medford. H. C. Williams of Evans Creek spent Tuesday in Medford. Harry C. Henderson has returned from a business trip to Portland. A. E. Reames is in Grants Pass on business. Arthur Brown has returned from a business trip to Roseburg. Charles C. Stood has returned from a visit in San Francisco. John R. Williamson of Talent spent Tuesday in Medford. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 31.—Daniel E. Blackburn, supervisor of San Mateo county, was arraigned today before Police Judge Shortall of San Francisco, charged with having accepted a bribe of $853 from Chas. Marshall, "outside man" for the H. S. Crocker company. As good advertising is a vital part of store service, a good store must be advertised.

SA Y! DID YOU EVER TRY A PAIR OF WALK-OVERS? Did you get your money's worth? Did they feel old when new, and look like new when old? Did you buy another pair? Did you tell your friends about Walk-Overs? If you ever owned a pair of Walk-Overs bought at this store you can answer YES to all of the above questions. Come and let us show you the best shoe for the money that you ever put on your foot. DON'T let someone try to tell you that because he doesn't advertise that he can sell you a better shoe. We can prove that he can't sell you a better shoe and nine chances to one he is simply charging a little more for an inferior article and pocketing the profit, at the same time laughing up his sleeve to think how easy you are Edmeades Bros
