

ASHLAND EXHIBIT GOES WEDNESDAY

Packers Have Been Paid By the Day and Are All Experts—Ashland Plans to Do Much Advertising in Connection With the Car.

Word has been received that the Helms entry from Ashland has been accepted and assured of a good position among the sweepstake carload exhibits, says the Tidings. In addition to the banner placed above the exhibit, there will be postal cards and other features of advertising used in connection with this display.

Scheduled as No. 8 in the premium list is a first prize for the best carload of Yellow Newtowns. This calls for $250 in cash, together with a national apple show gold medal banner; the second prize being $100 cash and silver medal banner. These are merely mentioned in order to emphasize the possibility of this community winning not only the sweepstake but also the first prize on an exclusive Newtown display.

It is planned to ship the Ashland car Wednesday of this week, so as to have it on hand promptly and avoid the danger of delay.

The car from this vicinity will be of Yellow Newtowns, exclusively and it will be entered as coming from the "Ashland district of the Rogue river valley," circumstance which should settle the question of its being a genuine Ashland exhibit. Furthermore, a streamer 80 feet long and 20 feet wide will be lettered to this effect and placed over the exhibit in order that "he who runs may read," and be well posted as to where the apples came from.

The packers engaged in sorting up this carload from the Helms orchard have been W. E. Pierson and Mrs. Nellie Pierson, Frank Patterson, Harry Pellett and Mr. Terrell, and these experts have been paid by the day instead of by the box, as this plan was decided upon as the best to secure satisfactory results.

The packing is of a uniform style throughout, but in three classifications—108, 112 and 120 specimens to the box. The top row is not wrapped this year, thus allowing every box easily available for exhibition purposes. A special arrangement of boxing, however, permits the fruit to be surrounded with paper lining, also a layer of cotton between cover and apples prevents bruising.

FEELING STRONG FOR WEST, SMITH

Northern Douglas County, Normally Republican, Promises to Go Democratic in the Coming Election—G. O. P. Majority Will Disappear.

OAKLAND, Ore., Nov. 2.—Sentiment for West and Smith is very strong in this section. A correspondent of the Journal has interviewed a large number of farmers and business men residing in the Galloway, Oakland, Sutherlin and adjacent precincts, and the expressions from these people indicate that West for governor and Smith for congress will receive a good majority of the votes cast for these offices in this section; in fact, at present it looks very much like the normal 400 republican majority in Douglas county will be wiped out and most of the democratic candidates elected. The sentiment in favor of Reed for joint representative from Jackson and Douglas counties, against Buchanan, the assembly nominee, is very strong, and it is freely predicted that the latter will be defeated. J. K. Howard, the democratic nominee for representative from this county, has a good chance of election, and several democratic county officials will no doubt be elected.

WEST TO CONSIDER THE WORLD'S FAIR

The west will meet in San Francisco November 17, and have a calm, serious talk concerning the problems of the Pacific slope states, the progress that may be made through cooperation, and the achievements of the next few years may witness. The conference will last three days. It has been called by Governor J. M. Gillett of California, and termed the Pacific coast congress. Governors of eight states, officials of those states and of three territories, including New Mexico, Hawaii and Alaska, mayors of all important towns within these closely allied sections, and prominent men from the whole western country will be present when the congress opens. It promises to inaugurate a new and most significant epoch in the history of a part of the United States that thus far has not attracted particular consideration in the councils of the nation.

For three days San Francisco will make these several hundred prominent westerners her guests, and the occasion will end in a master banquet, at the conclusion of which a speech or two will be made expressing the sense of the gathering. It may be decided to let the states work out their problems separately, as has been done in the past; perhaps the congress will go on record as the father of a new western union—a solid west—that will work as one when striving for benefits the west believes it should have.

At any rate several issues that have been agitating the west for a generation will be fought out. The attitude of the Pacific coast states—of Idaho, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, Washington, Nevada, Oregon, California, Hawaii and Alaska—on an American merchant marine, a battleship fleet for the Pacific, and the scope of the exposition San Francisco and San Diego hope to give in 1915 will be determined upon. These are things for which a strong sentiment has been growing for some time.

GLEN FABRICK BUYS GAUNYAW 5-ACRE TRACT

Miss Ella M. Gaunyaw has sold the Gaunyaw five-acre tract on West Second and Jackson streets to Glen Fabrick, former proprietor of the Medford Laundry, for $6000. The only improvement upon the place is a small cottage. The property was purchased six years ago by the late J. E. Gaunyaw, father of Miss Gaunyaw, for $400, and the sale shows the advance in city property in the intervening period.

Mr. Fabrick will plat and subdivide the tract into city lots, and will build a residence for himself as well as houses to sell to other home-seekers. Miss Gaunyaw has purchased the George Lindley property on South Holly street near the park, consisting of a six-room bungalow and lot, and with her sister, Miss Emma Gaunyaw, and brother, Ray Gaunyaw, will make her home there.

Shall Women Vote?

If they did, millions would vote Dr. King's New Life Pills the true remedy for women. For banishing dull, fagged feelings, backache or headache, constipation, dispelling colds, imparting appetite and toning up the system, they're unequalled. Easy, safe, sure. 25c at Chas. Strang's.
