

Central Point Items

Mrs. G. E. Fox has gone to Sheridan, Wyo., in response to a telegram received Monday evening, advising her of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Rawlins. She resides in that city. Captain and Mrs. Rawlins were former residents of this place and have many friends in the valley. It is understood Mrs. Rawlins suffered from a stroke of paralysis recently.

Mayor Loeber and J. W. Myers motored to Medford yesterday morning. Emil T. Erickson, who owns a fine tract of land east of Central Point, was in town yesterday morning on business.

Jud Pernell, the Jackson county southpaw ballplayer, who has made the Applegate valley famous by breaking into fast eastern ball company because he could deliver the goods, is home for the winter, after having spent the summer with the Detroit team. Jud is a full-blooded Jackson county native and his clever left arm and well-balanced brain will doubtless carry him into the forefront of pitchers before many years.

A fire fire at the Magruder home, in the east part of town, called out the fire department Saturday evening, but the blaze had spent itself before the boys got properly under way.

Mrs. N. P. Thompson, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Sams Valley for a couple of weeks, has returned home.

M. R. England expects to get into his new store within a few days and will get settled at his leisure as soon as the shelving and fixtures are finished and in place. The shelving, showcases, etc., are all made in Central Point. When all is completed Mr. England will have one of the most handsome drug stores in the valley.

M. G. Womack, the well-known mining man, has struck a very promising prospect near Gold Hill that promises to develop into a veritable bonanza. The vein is four feet wide and a large portion of it is literally shoe full of the precious metal.

Mrs. Elizabeth Beal stopped off here for a day or two during the week on her return from a pleasant visit with relatives at Junction City, Portland and other Willamette valley points. She went on to Ashland Saturday, where she expects to spend the winter, but will probably return to Central Point in the spring and build a new home here.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Olsson returned Sunday from a pleasant visit of several weeks at Rosburg and Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. E. Davis were Medford callers Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lester Davis of Ashland, who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. E. Davis for two weeks, returned to Ashland Sunday morning.

Mrs. Phronia Simpkins returned Friday from a pleasant visit with her brother, J. A. Shields, and family, at Gervais.

Mrs. M. M. Cooksey left yesterday for Portland, where she expects to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Rose Bartlett.

Reports from many sections of the county are to the effect that an increasing number of republicans have announced their intention of supporting J. W. Myers for county commissioner. Many who heretofore have supported Mr. Patterson now object to his candidacy on the ground that he is not willing to abide by the will of the people as expressed at the primaries. On the other hand, Mr. Myers declared policy of letting road work by contract instead of having it done by day labor as is now done, meets with general favor. It looks mighty like Myers now, with Mr. Patterson third man in the race.

A vote for principle is never lost. Rather vote for what you want, and not get it, than vote for what you do not want, and then kick about it.

Charity is not justice—it is degrading.

How can a man get wealth who does not produce it, unless someone producing it does not get it?

We (socialists) know that our present business methods made paupers faster than charity can relieve them.

WHAT IS THE Name OF THE FINEST Flour

If you are a user of the flour that we handle it won't take you long to answer this question. If you don't use the flour we sell you haven't tried the best flour sold in this city. Most bakers use a cheaper flour in their bakery products—they can make more on their bread. We are sure that PURE WHITE is the finest flour, for we have tried and found it to be better than anything we ever tried. Have you tried it?

CRIPPEN'S LAST HOPE IS GONE

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The court of criminal appeal today dismissed the petition of Dr. H. H. Crippen for a retrial on a charge of having murdered his wife. The decision means that Crippen will hang November 8.

After hearing brief arguments the court decided that there existed no ground for a retrial. Crippen was calm, though pale, when the decision was conveyed to him.

Only the interference of the home secretary can now prevent Crippen's execution. It is not likely that the clemency of the crown will be extended in this case.

Crippen appeared in court with his attorneys to learn his fate. In granting Crippen the right to appeal, Justice Ridley ruled that Crippen must not appear in court when the appeal was argued. Today Justices Darling, Channel and Pickford overruled Ridley and sent for the prisoner.

Crippen's step was firm, but his jauntness of manner had vanished. He walked steadily to his seat and conferred with his attorneys.

Barrister Tobin's plea was that the trial jurors had not been sufficiently isolated and that outsiders could communicate with them. His plea was overruled. Tobin then argued that the body of the person found in the Crippen home in North London had not been sufficiently identified, and that even if it were identified there had been adduced no proofs of murder.

LEAPS FROM AUTO TO CERTAIN DEATH BENEATH

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 5.—Mrs. Vesta Stafford is dead today as the result of a strange, automobile accident which even her husband, who was driving the car, is unable to explain.

E. A. Talbot, who was driving another car on Norton avenue, says that he saw the woman, who was 30 years of age, fall from her machine. He helped her husband take her to the receiving hospital, where she died.

Stafford declared that his wife apparently leaped from the tonneau while he was driving at a moderate speed. He declares she is at a loss to account for her action. The case was given to the coroner.

No part of a store service to you is more valuable than its advertising. And it doesn't cost you money—it saves you money.

These men, Moore, King and Burr, are candidates for the six-year term on the supreme bench. Judge Moore is sure of election, because republicans, democrats and non-political judiciary alike nominated him. Consequently either King or Burnett must be defeated and a vote for both would be the same as not voting at all. To aid in retaining Judge King upon the supreme bench, pass by Burnett's name when you vote and place an X before the name of Will R. King. (Paid adv.) 197

CLERK LOCKED IN VAULT HAS NARROW ESCAPE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 5.—Deputy Clerk W. C. Hart of the United States district court is recovering today from the harrowing experience of being locked in an airtight vault in the federal building, where his screams for help failed to penetrate to his fellow clerks working on the other side of the ten-inch wall of concrete and steel.

Hart went into the vault an hour before time for closing the office yesterday. In some way the massive steel door swung shut behind him and he was caught in the cell, which was not lighted.

Deputy Clerk Owen, seeking a document that had already been placed in the vault, opened the door and Hart fell fainting into his arms.

PORTLAND TWENTY-EIGHTH CITY IN UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.—According to well-authenticated rumors here today, Portland will be shown to be the 28th city in population in the United States when the census is announced. In 1900 the city stood in 42d place.

It is understood that Portland's population, while reduced below the original report of the enumerators, will be in excess of the figures sent in by Special Agent Hester of the census, who rechecked the various districts and shaved down the figures by several thousand.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND A YEAR PAID TO BALLPLAYER

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Christy Mathewson's salary for next year was announced today by President John T. Brush at $15,000. Likewise, the Giant star improves with age, as his salary last year was $10,000. In the post-season series alone he showed he was well worth the money. The announcement was not official, but is accepted in baseball circles as correct. This is the highest salary ever paid a baseball player.

You believed that "dead stock" to be salable when you bought it. Probably it was—and is. Concentrate a little advertising on it—and, in a week, forget that it ever worried you.

SIDNEY STORY SPEAKS MONDAY.

Sidney Story, for 15 years park commissioner of New Orleans, ex-member of New Orleans Municipal assembly, father of reform measures which have absolutely solved civic problems in his native city, and one of the foremost speakers in Dixieland, will deliver an address in this city at the opera house on Monday evening, November 7th, his topic being "Model License Law the Only Cure for the Evils of Intemperance." Mr. Story's address on this subject, delivered scores of times, has gained him the plaudits of tens of thousands of his listeners.

Mr. Story will deal with facts concerning prohibition and its failure to prohibit. He will support initiative bill No. 328, which gives to every city and town the exclusive power to license, regulate, control, or to sup-
