

"Prince of Pilsen" Saturday

Butte Falls Items

Henry Cobleigh and Mr. Storm of the middle bridge section were trading with our merchants during the week.

George West, ranger, and several other government officers have gone to Cat hill section to plant out seed over the burned area. Austrian pine, Norway spruce and other tree seeds will be planted to renew the forest.

Hallowe'en passed off very quietly. The children had some fun with their lanterns and faces and Mrs. Brainhard entertained the boys with largely attended. But few pranks were played.

Ben Lamb has been in our section taking a hunt, and says that Will has sold his ranch and purchased some ten acres near Medford.

The Ashland people have had a normal school banner strung across the street urging the voters to vote for the re-establishment of the Ashland normal school, and from what we learn there will be a good vote in favor of it.

Robert Neil, democratic candidate for state senator, was here on Wednesday interviewing the voters and thinks he has a favorable showing in the county.

W. T. Beveridge, who has been under the weather, made a visit on railroad business to our town and while here placed an order for lumber for the depot and other railroad buildings.

Ben Edmonson and wife have been visiting with the family of Mr. Edmonson.

Ed Walker and wife have been in town and circulating among their friends.

The case of C. P. Briggs vs. Alice Baker, an action of ejectment, has been decided in favor of Mrs. Baker.

Luther Hughes has taken a job with the rangers and will help them in their work of reforesting the burned district.

Rev. M. Hicks of Ashland and the pastor of Eagle Point, held services in the school house on Thursday evening and had a large congregation and gave a most acceptable service.

Change Name but not Policy

You will find the same faces to wait on you as you found before—the same well known quality—the same courteous treatment—the same willingness to make right every little thing that should prove wrong—the same desire on every one's part to please.

We will continue to carry the well-known brands of goods that we have carried before and add to them such others as we feel are in demand by our trade.

We hope to make this the best and most popular store in Southern Oregon, and while we feel that we now enjoy the largest trade in the city of Medford, we will endeavor to increase that business right along and if good goods and right prices will do it we will have an easy time.

Reva, Northedge and Haynes of Ashland conducted divine service Saturday evening, Sunday morning and Sunday evening.

Saturday evening a band of neighbors armed with violin and other implements of recreation, swooped down upon W. R. Lamb and family. Although the attack was unexpected the lambs proved equal to the emergency, meeting the company with a hand of cordial welcome, and a pleasant evening was passed in dancing and other pastime.

THEATERS AND SCALPERS SAID TO BE IN LEAGUE

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Alderman F. A. Britten announced last night that on next Monday he will introduce an ordinance into the city council raising the license of all first-class theaters from $1500 to $2000 a year. An ordinance closing all theaters on Sunday has also been proposed. "Every member of the committee is favorable to closing the theaters on Sundays and to raising the license from $1500 to $2000 a year," said Britten. "Our campaign is directed at the scolding industry, which the theaters are backing up. If the theatrical people would give us some evidence that they will break away from the scalpers we would waive our ordinances. If they insist on profiting from methods from which the public suffers innocently, it is our place to hold up such big sticks as Sunday closing and $2000 license fees."

MILLER AND LUX WIN IN SUPREME COURT

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8.—The supreme court of the United States this afternoon decided the cases of Miller & Lux, a California corporation, against the Riekey Land & Cattle Co., in favor of Miller & Lux. Miller & Lux own land along the Walker river, which rises in California and flows into Nevada. Riekey lived in Nevada and held land along the river in California. In 1902 Miller & Lux sued Riekey in the United States court to enjoin him from taking water from the river and thereby injuring their land. The Riekey company was incorporated in California and sued in the California courts to have the water rights upheld.

The advent of new stocks in a local store is always a news event of real interest to all people to whom that particular store is at all important.
