

ENGLISH MARKET FOR APPLES GOOD

Schoel & Day of New York, under date of November 5, say: The English markets on Watsonville Newtowns continue in bad shape as follows:

Liverpool—L. Connolly & Co. say that yesterday's sale three-tiers made 6 to 6.6, but do not quote four and one-half tier. However, there has not been much difference in the prices lately between the two sizes.

London—According to M. Isaacs & Sons the four-tier Newtowns are selling all the way from 6 to 7s, and the receipts continue heavier than the demand.

Hamburg—A cable is here to a representative of one of the houses there which says there were no sales of Newtowns, there being no demand for them in Hamburg at present.

The shipments from here this week or boy apotes were about as follows: London, 26,800; Liverpool 7,500 and the continent 4,700.

At auction here since our last there has only been one ear, which was sold yesterday and came from Rosburg, Or.—Spitzenbergs, rather soft, and with some brown rot or Baldwin spot, and they averaged $1.13, while the Newtown Pippins were pretty good and they averaged $1.53.

A private sale there is no change from the prices quoted in our last. Hood River Spitzenbergs, some reported sold as low as $2, and the best of them we know, $2.50 to $2.75. No Newtowns sold, and some Jonathans, $1.75 to $2. The offerings have not been heavy, the weather for two days having been frightful, owing to a fierce rainstorm. However, today it is clear, bright and much colder and the effect we believe will be seen in a stronger market, but we very much doubt if for a couple of weeks anyway we will see any high prices, as the arrivals are, we understand, to be ample. A good many ears are going into storage, which may be advisable on prime Al hard stock, but we think not otherwise. The situation has certainly been anything but bright lately, and the continued hot weather interfered materially with the distribution of apples, so that everybody is longing for cold, snappy weather to tone up the market.

APPLE MARKET IS VERY WEAK

The Northwestern Fruit exchange says:

The apple market is extremely weak and borders on the verge of demoralization. The demand has disappeared, and buyers are offering such ridiculously low prices that we have determined to place in cold storage all ears on which we cannot obtain what we consider fair value. The demoralization is assisted by the operations of a number of firms controlling large quantities of fruit from various large shipping districts, who appear to have lost their nerve and are bidding desperately for offers. We received a wire this morning from John G. Neumann Co., one of our customers at Eansville, Ind., which we quote verbatim, as it affords a very fair example of the situation: "Quote very lowest G. N. 90646, G. N. 91902, G. N. 90948. Gibson's agent selling cheaper." We have gone back at this buyer endeavoring to secure a fair price for our ears, but failed to secure the order, so it is very clear that we have been undersold. Badly mixed ears are more than ever impossible to sell at good prices on an F.o.b. basis, and such ears will have to be placed in the markets and sold on their merits. Fruit which is soft or otherwise unsuitable for cold storage will have to be sold in the same manner. We believe that the market is about at its worst stage, and it will probably recover sharply, so that we are not allowing anything to be sacrificed that can be had.

We are fighting for the growers' interests incessantly and have no object in view but to extract the last penny out of the fruit that the markets will possibly stand. There is now a difference of 25 to 40 cents between our asking prices and buyers' offers, which indicates the trend of the market. We desire all of our clients to understand the facts very clearly. The policy of this exchange is to give facts at all times, and for his reason the exchange has enjoyed the confidence of the fruit grower everywhere. This confidence it will continue earnestly to strive to merit.

CONDITIONS IN MEXICO.

own across the border from Eagle Pass is reported quiet. Troops, both federal and rurales, are stationed near the town and can be rushed in to guard American property if it is deemed necessary. A guard had been placed about the partially wrecked consulate.

The Mexican consulate at Eagle Pass today began an investigation of the beheading of Antonio Rodriguez of Rock Springs, whose death was the immediate cause of the demonstrations at the Mexican capital. Governor Campbell has arranged to give ample protection to the consulate while the investigation is under way. In the meantime, the state authorities are investigating the matter on their own account and will report the facts at the earliest possible moment to the state department at Washington.

The feeling at Rock Springs has not been changed by the riots in Mexico. The people there freely express the opinion that Rodriguez deserved the fate that was given them and say that they were justified in turning him at the stake.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—Returns today insure the election of Timothy Hogan, democrat, as attorney-at-law. Early returns left the result in doubt. A few counter-republicans remained to be heard from, but not enough to offset the rest down the lead which Hogan now has.

WEST WILL HOLD BIG TURKEY SHOOT

SALEM, Or., Nov. 12.—Governor Ellet Oswald West has announced that he has arranged to hold a turkey shoot at St. Louis in this county, Thanksgiving, Thursday, November 24, to which all his old friends that have shot with him in former times are invited to participate.

The arrangements for the trap-shooting have been placed in the hands of a committee consisting of CHET Evans, George Palmer and Lee Schultz. It will be held under the auspices of the "Old Guard," as West calls the trapshooters. Everybody is invited, birds will be free and it will take on characteristics of a celebration of the magnificent majority in Marion county of 1000 votes which his friends succeeded in piling up for him against his opponent, J. B. Bowman.

St. Louis, the site of the big turkey shoot, is on the Oregon Ellet's within easy access to all his Marion county friends. No one will be barred. West is busy attending to his duties as railroad commissioner again. Mr. Bowman is also in Salem attending to many neglected tasks.

COMMERCIAL CLUBS BET ON DISPLAYS OF APPLES

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 12.—One of the unique wagers that has come out of the keen rivalry for first honors at the third National Apple show in Spokane, November 14 to 19, is the posting of $1000 each by the chambers of commerce at Kalspell and Missoula, Mont., with George T. Mathews, secretary of the commercial club of Lewiston, Mont., in four contests. The Kalspell organization offered to wager that growers in the Flathead district will win a majority of the prizes offered at the Spokane show on McIntosh Red apples. This challenge was promptly accepted by the Missoula chamber on behalf of the orchardists in that district. Both organizations have made numerous entries, and, as western Montana is the home of the McIntosh Red, it is expected there will be keen competition and that the choicest fruit in the valleys will be exhibited.
