

APPLE MARKET IS STILL UNSETTLED

The Northwestern Fruit exchange in a recent bulletin says:

Apples—Early in the season, when the speculative demand for cold storage apples is always the strongest, we had a heavy demand from all districts, and sent many letters and telegrams to various associations in the northwest, urging them to name definite specifications under which we might effect sales.

It is a fact that very few of the associations were in a position to take advantage of this demand, for the simple reason that they lacked control of the fruit grown by their members, and seemed quite unable to make dependable estimates of what the world eventually ship, consequently a great deal of this demand was lost, and there is an axiom in the fruit business that "demand which is once lost can never be regained."

Save an Iowa Man's Life. The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him.

Not Sorry For Blunder. "If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders of Harrisburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Chas. Strang."
