

ROCK SPRINGS IS AN ARMED CAMP

Fears of Armed Invasion by Mexicans thirsting for Vengeance Went Up in Smoke—Officials Say That Alarm Was Needless.

ROCK SPRINGS, Tex., Nov. 17.—Fears of an armed invasion by Mexicans thirsting for vengeance and a return to border warfare of pioneer days went up in smoke when members of the "flying squadron" that left here yesterday to intercept a band of 300 reported to be hurrying from Del Rio returned today and reported not having seen a single "invader."

Armed men with which the town is filled, received the news without any outward demonstration of joy, as they refuse to be convinced that a brush with the Mexicans is not imminent. They professed to believe that the invaders gave the cowboys the slip and returned across the border to await reinforcements before marching on Rock Springs, and accordingly are "resting on their arms." Rock Springs is virtually an armed camp. Fifty armed rangers arrived today.

Officials of Edwards county believe that the community has been needlessly alarmed.

JOHNSON MAY PERMIT PUGILISM

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Gotham sports are in receipt of a tip bearing the earmarks of the "real dope" that the fight game is shortly to be revived on the Pacific coast. According to those "in the know," fist-fights, under certain restrictions, are to be permitted by the new state administration.

Hiram Johnson, governor-elect, although generally ranked with the reformers, is said to be very friendly inclined toward pugilism, if properly conducted.

Large chunks of Crimson money flooded the market and went begging at the juicy odds of 2 1/2 and 3 to 1. Even money was offered that Yale would not score and most of the bets recorded were on this phase of the game.

AMERICAN FLEET VISITS ENGLAND

Proceeds Further Up the Thames Than Any Other American Warship Has Ever Ventured—Many Official Visits Made.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The third division of the American battleship fleet, consisting of the battleships Georgia, Rhode Island, Nebraska and Virginia, arrived off Gravesend today and cast anchor farther up the Thames than any American war vessel ever before had ventured.

Gravesend fluttered with flags in honor of the occasion and Londoners hastened down the Thames to get a good look at the visitors.

The run up from the Nore was a veritable triumphal procession, the land batteries and the warships off the big dockyard towns of Sheerness, Sheerness and Chatham exchanging a continuous fusillade of salutes with the American vessels.

Official visiting was the order of the day, and after the more important American officers had lauded to officially announce their arrival the American marines were kept busy escorting and saluting solemn British "admirals, superintendents of dockyards," who came out to see with their own eyes that an American warship really had been able to proceed so far up the Thames.

Among the first visitors was the mayor of Gravesend, who boarded the flagship to extend the welcome of the municipality.

The squadron will remain in port until December 7, when its place will be filled by the fourth division, which is scheduled to come over from Brent and remain here until after Christmas.

CANADIAN CONGRESS WILL OPEN TODAY

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 17.—The first session of the eleventh parliament of Canada will be opened here this afternoon by the governor-general, Earl Grey. In view of the approaching election, it is expected the session will be long and marked by bitter debates.

The arrival of the cruisers Niobe and Rainbow will be noted in the speech from the throne as marking the beginning of the Canadian navy. Satisfaction will be expressed that reciprocity negotiations have been entered into with the United States. The agreement between Canada and the United States for the regulation of inland waters will be noted with great satisfaction. The finances of Canada will be declared in a most satisfactory condition. A new banking law is promised, though it will contain few new departures.

Arm Broken by Auto Crank.

ASHLAND, Or., Nov. 17.—G. S. Butler, a prominent citizen of Ashland, had the larger bone of the right forearm broken near the wrist while in the act of cranking his automobile. There was too much "spark" on, as the autoists term it; the crank shaft reversed with terrific force, the handle striking his arm with the result indicated.

Eden Precinct Items

Phoenix was lively on election day. Many of the farmers came in for miles around to talk or vote, and the old town was filled up. Many staid and took dinner at the Ladies' Aid room.

Several small fruit farms west of Phoenix have changed hands lately. Among them are George Hoyer, Sr., and Emil Houston. Both are small places with young orchards just coming into bearing, and sold at a good figure.

HILL WANTS TO COME TO OREGON

Empire Builder May Speak at Development League Congress at Salem—Writes That He Is Anxious to Visit State.

PORTLAND, Nov. 17.—James J. Hill has telegraphed Manager Chapman of the Commercial club that he is coming west very soon and will try to arrange his time so as to be at the Salem convention of the Oregon Development league to be held the last three days of this month. Mr. Hill in his dispatch expressed his cordial thanks for the urgent invitation extended him, and said he could not yet determine whether he could reach this region in time. Assurance is had that he will do his best to make the date.

President Howard Elliott of the Northern Pacific will be the principal speaker at the league convention. Definite plans with respect to his address have been made, the Northern Pacific magnate delaying his departure east a week and a half to attend this function of the Oregon boosters. There will be other well-known railway men of the west to attend, besides the prominent list of western boosters engaged by commercial clubs and promotion societies.

Frank E. Morrison's talk on publicity advertising will be a feature. He is manager of the Magazine association, and has been identified with some big publicity campaigns for the southern states. He has been invited to discuss all phases of this work and will afford the Oregon workers an unrivaled opportunity to hear a leader in his line of work.

IDAHO LEGISLATURE STILL REPUBLICAN

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 17.—By a majority of five in the senate and 15 in the house, the republicans still control both branches of the Idaho legislature, despite the democratic landslide at the recent election which resulted in the election of the democratic candidate, James H. Hawley, to the governorship over Governor Brady, who was seeking re-election.

Complete returns are now in and they show that the house will be divided as follows: Republicans, 37; democrats, 22. In the senate there will be 14 republicans and 9 democrats. The republicans claim that they will have the necessary two-thirds majority to force through the constitutional prohibition amendment that would make Idaho a dry state. To do this it would be necessary to secure 16 votes in the senate. It is understood that there are three democrats, however, who probably will cast their ballots for prohibition with the republicans, as they are known to be "drys."

The money you may save through your interest in ads will probably pay the interest on a small mortgage—if you have any such interest to pay.

Haskin's for health.

Central Point Items

By C. L. GANT.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are preparing to hold their Thanksgiving tea offering and supper on the 18th instant and are busy feeding the gobbler and preparing the program for the occasion.

The local management of the Pacific States telephone system is good enough for anybody, but the antediluvian service handed us by the company is enough to make a David Harem of the most pious deacon in the entire congregation.

We have one outspoken prohibitionist in Central Point who attributes the overwhelming defeat of his party in Oregon to "graft" into which his party leaders had fallen.

The chicken pie dinner given by the Ladies' Aid of the Christian church at Phoenix on election day was a complete success in every way and was well patronized. About $40 was realized.

Unless some drains are provided Central Point will be a pond bespangled municipality for the next four months.

Some wedding bells are to ring here in the near future, but under penalty of complete and permanent "ostracism" from the inner circles of the elite, your correspondent dares not divulge the names at present.

Of necessity Central Point should have a town lawyer, but if "necessity knows no law," as the old saw goes, what in Sams Valley are we going to do for legal advice on some of our enigmatical ordinances.

NO THEATER ON CHURCH CORNER, SAY TRUSTEES

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 17.—Rather than permit a theater to occupy the site of the Plymouth Congregational church, the trustees have voted to reject the cash offer of $325,000 made by Alex. Pantages, the vaudeville manager. The church society will soon move to a new edifice and Pantages has made every effort to buy the valuable downtown corner where the old church now stands.
