

APPLE MARKET IS MOST DIFFICULT

The Northwestern Fruit exchange in a recent market bulletin says: The market situation continues exceedingly difficult, and the demand is sluggish and critical. The trade are hard to interest except at very low prices.

BUYERS EAGER FOR APPLES, SAYS WHITE

W. N. White & Co. of New York say of the apple situation: "After last year's experience of commencing operations at prohibitive prices, and so checking the consumption, I am pleased to report that with reasonable prices all markets are taking large lots from every state in the west. Quite a lot have gone to Europe; in fact, notwithstanding the heavy supplies (the heaviest in many years), all markets are kept cleaned up and buyers are eager to get goods.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the many kind friends and neighbors who, through the long illness and final death of our father and brother, George Brown, administered such kindly sympathy, assistance and consolation, we desire to earnestly return thanks, and testify our appreciation of their helpful hands in our hour of need.
