

$200,000 SUIT AGAINST CORT

Seattle Theater Brings Action Against Theatrical Magnate, Claiming Recent Agreement Damages Them Greatly.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 19.—Declaring that they are out of pocket $200,000 by reason of the agreement made between John Cort, president of the National Theater Owners' association and the Shubert Booking agency, Russell and Drew, owners of the Alhambra theater company have brought a suit in the superior court to enjoin the Shuberts from playing their attractions in John Cort's theater in this city. Russell and Drew seek to prevent the Shubert attractions from appearing elsewhere in Seattle than the Alhambra theater, and demand $25,000 damages. Russell and Drew have a ten-year lease on the Alhambra, paying $10,000 a month rental. At present a cheap stock company occupies the boards.

It is alleged by Russell and Drew that Lee Shubert bought $50,000 worth of stock in the Alhambra enterprise and as a guarantee that his attractions would play at that theater. Since that time Russell and Drew assert, Shubert and Cort have made a contract whereby Cort gets the stock in the Alhambra company and all Shubert attractions are switched over to play the Moore theater, controlled by Cort.

Resolutions of Condolence.

To the Officers and Members of Lodge No. 1168, B. P. O. E., Medford, Or.:

We, your committee, appointed to draft and recommend resolutions touching the death of our brother, Warren E. Bodge, beg leave to submit the following report:

Whereas, the Exalted Ruler of Mankind, in fulfillment of his Divine purpose, has seen fit to call from earth our brother, Warren E. Bodge; and

Whereas, Brother Bodge was a faithful member of our order, a true friend and upright and just man and a faithful and devoted husband; he is

Resolved, That we, as a lodge, and each of us as members, deeply regret the untimely death of Brother Bodge; that we mourn his loss as great and irreparable; that through his life work, which was noble throughout, ending in the midst of the discharge of duty, our deceased brother has left with us a high example of manhood, the memory of which, written upon the unfading tablets of love and memory, shall remain an inspiration to high and noble endeavor; that, though no sleeps, his influence still serves as an inspiration and guide to those who remain to await the last summons, thereby enriching by his death an order to which in life he had served as a tower of strength and support.

Resolved, That we extend to his brother, J. E. Bodge, and to others of his relatives our tenderest sympathy and to his bereaved wife our pledge of that filial devotion that remains steadfast throughout the sorrows and vicissitudes of life.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to Lodge No. 326, B. P. O. E., of Roseburg, of which deceased was a member; to J. E. Bodge of Klamath Falls; to Mrs. Clone Eifer Bodge, the widow, and that a copy of the same be kept by this lodge to remain a part of its permanent record.

Respectfully submitted,
MARTIN J. REDDY,
T. E. POTTENGER,
B. F. MULKEY,
Committee.

WILSON TAKES SHOT AT COL. ROOSEVELT

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Without directly referring to Colonel Theodore Roosevelt or mentioning him by name Governor-elect Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, addressing the Y. M. C. A. here this afternoon, said that agitators were "useful in awakening the public conscience, but were dangerous as leaders."

"It is not necessary to follow the progress of agitators," he added, "It is often dangerous when we attempt to work out practical problems. It requires a brass band to wake people sometimes, but you cannot solve practical problems by falling in behind the brass band. I believe in heroic declaration from the platform, but that is not the thing that creates an atmosphere necessary for the proper solution of problems."

Fight Over Title.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Should Minnesota follow out its avowed intention of claiming the national football championship if it beats Michigan Saturday, its followers will have no end of argument on their hands.

Eastern football enthusiasts read the announcement today with considerable amusement. They refuse to concede that the Gophers are better than either Harvard or Yale, and it is unlikely that Minnesota will be allowed the title without first winning it.
