Who Is St. Paul Mayor?

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 19.—Who is mayor of St. Paul? Herbert P. Keller was never regularly elected, under a ruling handed down by Geo. T. Simpson, attorney general. The last legislature changed the law governing the closing of the polls in cities so that the polls are now open until 9 o'clock, but in spite of that the polls at the city election last May were closed at 7. Many voters, it is declared, were disfranchised by this and the election of Keller for that reason, was not legal. Daniel W. Lawler was the last mayor of St. Paul. The change in the law was made quite surreptitiously by the legislature and few knew of it.

Zeppelin to Visit United States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Count Zeppelin, the German airship man, is going to visit this country and bring one of his big dirigibles with him, according to a statement made by his brother, Count Hugo von Zeppelin, who, with the countess, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William L. Benedict in this city. Count Hugo said he is now building the seventh vessel and has just returned with Prince Henry of Prussia from Spitzbergen, where they looked over the ground from where the count and his party will start on their polar trip next June.

CANADA WILL NOT YET MODIFY NAVAL AGREEMENT

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 19.—It is stated in ministerial circles today that there is no foundation for the story published in eastern papers to the effect that the government proposes to modify its naval policy as a result of recent political events. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues say they are satisfied that while there is undoubtedly consider-
