Ashland Notes

James E. Low purchased a lot on C street from C. E. Nislinger. The price paid was $4400. The property is near the passenger depot and has a frontage of 75 feet. It is understood that Mr. Low intends to build a rooming house of 25 rooms on the property, the building being constructed of reinforced concrete.

The St. Louis parties who have been investigating the Kaolin beds, located ten miles east of Ashland on the old Forj Klamath stage road, are reported to have made a purchase of 180 acres of land on which there is extensive kaolin quarries. They expect to operate these quarries and build a large factory in the suburbs of Ashland for the manufacture of all kinds of pottery, fire brick and tile of all descriptions.

Hugh Fish has traded his orchard two miles east of this city for hotel property in Seattle and Mr. and Mrs. Fish have left for the latter city to take charge of the new purchase.

The snow of the past few days has stopped the paving carried on by the Warren Construction company and all other street work here.

P. M. Du Bois, the forest ranger, is having a strenuous time planting his crop of Norway pine and other varieties of trees on the 250 acres of burnt over ground on the Ashland water shed, on account of the snow-storm.

A swell entertainment was held here in the Elks' temple for the members and their families. The Jordan orchestra was in attendance and the time was most pleasantly spent until 12 o'clock, when a fine lunch was served.

O. H. Johnson, who came from Washington about two years ago, will be a candidate for councilman in the Third ward, and no better man could be found in the ward for the position, having lived in Spokane for several years, he is well posted on how to do things in a live and up-to-date city. J. C. Barnard is urged to accept a second term, as he has made a first-class councilman, and it is largely through Mr. Barnard that any improvements whatever have been made in the Second ward, although he represents the First.

Judge George D. Peters expects about a dozen of his former neighbors of Iowa to arrive in Ashland during the month of February to locate in this vicinity.

Butte Falls Items

L. G. Palmer, who has been working at the mill and built himself a neat bungalow, has left Butte Falls and gone to Portland for a stay of some time.

The mill was unfortunate in having two of its main belts broken lately and which has interfered with the work of the mill, but it will soon repair the breakage and run for a short time, betting out depot lumber after which it may close down for the winter, and from present prospects there will be but little doing at Butte Falls this winter.

Engineer Beveridge and his crew having finished up their work for the winter have all left for the valley and there will be nothing doing until spring toward the railroad extension.

J. I. Patton has been in the valley for some days attending to business and personal matters.

Mrs. Marey of the Valley View hotel gave a very pleasant social at the hotel on Saturday evening, which was well attended, and a most pleasant time was enjoyed by all present.

Thanksgiving will not be very elaborately celebrated at the Falls, as we have not heard the "gobble" nor seen any sign of a turkey feast in preparation, but we will enjoy geese and ganders with cranberries and mince pie.

It has been raining steadily for the past few days and the ground is water-soaked and the roads in a frightful condition, so much so that the railroad cannot run any train over it and our merchants are bothered about their freight supplies, as the food supply is rapidly diminishing.

There is talk that quite a number of our workmen will leave for the valley, as they must have work for the winter.

It is hoped that another year will bring local matters into such shape that Butte Falls will boom and many plants be built and the railroad have plenty of traffic and the timber begin to move from this point, for if anything is to be done it is about time and the conditions are ripe for making this a very important manufacturing center and point of distribution.

Quite a number of local people have come out to spend Thanksgiving with their friends and we expect a very quiet day hereabouts.

Vice-President Gerig is rushing the halting and finishing up of the railroad as fast as the weather conditions permit, and it is hoped he will be able to dispatch a freight train with a coach at least once a week until spring and he can get the track in good running order.

Thus far Butte Falls has not experienced a more quiet season in all lines than it has suffered for the past month or so, and it will not improve until we have diversified industries to make large payrolls, and this can only be brought about by encouraging the incoming of people of means and the introduction of plants putting out large stocks for rail shipment. It will require large capital to bring this point to where it can be profitably and successfully operated.

There is but little of interest transpiring hereabouts and news is an article which is very scarce.

LIGHT AND BEAUTY

Light and beauty give zest to life. Light is beauty—if it's Electric Light. Good illumination adds joy to every social function. The dance, the dinner, the card party, all are more enjoyable when proper illumination is used. Perfect light—Electric Light—lends itself to any desired effect. Send for our representative and let him prove it.

Phoenix and Vicinity

By T. F. RAWLINS.

Northern California, with her cheap, rich valley lands is making a strong pull for the great immigration tide that is surging toward the great northwest from the eastern states. Southern Oregon should look a little out lest inflated prices set the tide more fully in that direction.

Our town board, I understand, is moving steadily forward in the matter of a city waterworks plant. It seems to be meeting with general favor among the people, especially what is termed the more progressive element.

Keep the wheels of progress moving; get out of moshackism. If you want to get progressive people in your town be progressive. The old, sleepy Indian summer days have gone by and a new era has dawned. Phoenix must "wake good."

On the occasion of Miss Hazel Johnson's birthday a number of her young friends gathered at her home one evening, this week and helped to celebrate the occasion with a good social time.

At the Christian church next Sunday morning the sermon will be in the nature of a Thanksgiving address. This is for the benefit of those who failed to get out to the service on Thursday. The evening subject will be a continuation of the previous Sunday evening's theme, "Why was it necessary for Christ to die in order that man might be saved?" All invited to these services.

Uncle Roberts was among those who attended church at Phoenix Thursday morning.

Miss M. B. Towne, deputy county clerk, came out to Phoenix to spend Thanksgiving with her sister, Miss Annie Towne.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Roberts was the recipient of a large gathering for the Thanksgiving feast, there being about 20 relatives gathered around the festal board.

A large concourse of friends attended the funeral of our old-time friend, Emerson E. Gore, at Phoenix, notwithstanding the inclement weather. Mr. Gore was beloved by all who knew him.

The snow of Wednesday night caused one of the electric wires to break between Medford and Phoenix, leaving Phoenix, North Talent and Talent in darkness for half an hour Thursday morning.

The telephones also were put out of commission by the breaking of wires.

Pioneer Dead. SALEM, Or., Nov. 26.—Mrs. Susan Whitney Stalger, an Oregon pioneer and for many years famous as hostess of the Cottage hotel here, died this morning of pneumonia.

Mark Applegate and family will leave Saturday for the Pazzard mines on Elk creek, where a goodly amount of development work is being planned by the company.
