

Personal and Local

Moor-Ehni Co., loans, Fruitgrowers' Bank building.
 Wanted—Boarders A new boarding house has opened at 706 South Oakdale. Call and see us for fair treatment, or address F. H. Moreland, 302

James Clapham and wife of Northfield, Minn., were here Friday as the guests of A. K. Ware. They looked over the valley and will undoubtedly settle here later.

Xmas photos made by Mackey will please.
 Guy R. McCoy of Everett, Wash., is in the city, and if a residence can be found will move his family here at once. Mr. McCoy is by profession a gas and steamfitter.

The Plaza Oyster Parlors, the place to eat. Commercial lunch 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. upstairs, opposite First National bank.

W. G. Willard, wife and little son arrived Friday afternoon from Zanesville, Wis., and expect to make their home in Medford in future. Mr. Willard is a carpenter by trade.

Have you noticed the new buildings going up in Oakdale Park addition just south of Mr. Root's? If Stanley Arnold, who arrived Friday night from Ozark, Mo., expects his family in about two weeks. Mr. Arnold expects to work for the Modoc Orchard company during the coming year.

Every light but electricity gives off smoke and smoke contains soot, which deposits on your wall paper, curtains, draperies. Electric light glows in an air tight bulb.

S. T. Swanson, who for a number of years has conducted a fish market in Seattle, is here looking for a location for a fish and oyster house, wholesale and retail.

W. C. Moyer, who represents a hardwood furniture concern, is in the valley for the purpose of inspecting the oak timber of southern Oregon. Mr. Moyer believes that much of the oak being cleared from orchard lands and consumed as firewood is valuable as furniture materials.

B. T. Van De Car carries the "Libby," "Hawks" and "Horn's" rich cut glass. Phipps bldg.

Chris Walters of Burlington, Wash., who is an expert bicycle man, will open a complete doctor shop for disabled wheels here in about two weeks. Mr. Walters is a man of family and his coming will add five more to the population of Medford.

You can buy "Libby," "Hawks" and "Horn's" cut glass at Van De Car's, Phipps bldg.

James C. Griggs of Grants Pass is in the city and will remain until Monday evening. Mr. Grigg is interested in mining in the vicinity of Woodville.

Don't forget the Christmas sale at the Presbyterian church Saturday, December 3.

S. M. Woods of Ashland is in town and will remain for a week or more, being under the care of a physician. Mr. Woods is suffering from a sprained spinal column.

Before buying that new suit, coat or dress, see Ahrens.

Joe Alnutt, the popular cigar manufacturer of Gold Hill, was transacting business in Medford Friday evening. Mr. Alnutt reports business as being good in Gold Hill and the town improving in many ways.

Free reading rooms at Presbyterian church, open every evening from 6:30 to 10 except Sunday.

Opera glasses make very appropriate Xmas presents, and they last a lifetime.

Late magazines, papers, and periodicals at Presbyterian reading room in church, corner Holly and Main streets. Open 6:30 to 10 p. m. Every man and boy is invited to spend the evening here.

D. J. W. Pollnitz of Central Point was here on business Friday afternoon.

We serve the best meals in town. First-class cooking. Good service. 35c. The Plaza Cafe, 128 East Main street.

R. L. Taylor has secured another card from W. T. Goulder, at Coquille, announcing that his wife and daughter are improving, and that great hopes are entertained for their recovery.

An elegant line of opera glasses in gold, pearl and Morocco at Dr. Goble's optical parlors, 301 East Main street.

Ben Clark loaded his automobile on a car Friday evening to be shipped to San Francisco, where he will go to enter the auto livery business.

J. T. Barbee will leave Sunday morning for Kansas City, Missouri, where he goes to look after the insurance business in which he is engaged.

Have your Xmas photos made by Mackey if you want something to please.

Fred H. Seaman of Soap Lake, Washington, is in the city on a business mission.

If you want to enjoy the show, take a pair of opera glasses with you. Dr. Goble has them at prices from $6.00 to $25.00, 301 East Main street.

George Hawkins is here from Chinoook, Washington, looking for a location for the establishment of a furniture factory.

Moor-Ehni Co., exclusive agents or property in Crescent and Wakefield, Or., townsites on Hill's new railroad. See them, Crescent is Division point.

Robert Blackmore and mother, Mrs. Sarah McDaniel, who are touring the coast, spent Saturday in Medford, and both declare they enjoyed everything, even the heavy rain of the morning.

Is your house wired? One cigar a day would pay for a hundred per cent increase in comfort. Start living the electric life.

W. H. Karr, a mining engineer from Goldfield, Nevada, was at the Nash at noon Saturday. Mr. Karr is on his way to Durango, Mexico, but owing to the recent uprising is loitering by the way until safety is assured.

Fifty-three acres special, 10 acres coming into bearing orchard. Call on B. Wood, Condon Water & Power Co.'s office.

Dave R. Bowman was down from Ashland Saturday attending to business matters regarding a tract of land east of that city on Bear creek. Mr. Bowman but recently located in the valley, coming here from Springfield, Illinois.

The Hull auto livery has decided to accommodate the trade and to from the opera, natatorium dances, cafes and so forth, and by placing a call they will call for you at any time. Their orders will be booked at their office. Phone 3141.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Hopkins and family have moved from Seaside and are quartered at the Hotel Seward, at Portland, until their departure for Europe next month.

Have you seen B. L. Van de Car's show window on Main street, Phipps Bldg? It has some suggestions for Xmas gifts.

My prices are reasonable. Your eye-sight is priceless. Dr. Rickert, over Kentner's.

W. E. Johnson, formerly manager and part owner of the Nash hotel, but at present a respected and hard working ranchman of Meadows, was in town Friday evening on a business mission.

Thoroughly experienced ranch superintendent (married) desires position. Highest credentials. Phone Main 2574.

L. B. Warner is here for a few days in order to close out all lots in West Walnut Park. Investors will do well to read his advertisement in this issue, and see him at once.

E. A. Welch leaves today on a business trip to San Francisco.

Mrs. J. H. Stewart, mother of Will Stewart, and widow of the first commercial orchardist in the Rogue River valley, is very ill at Oakland.

Mrs. Alex Pottinger, wife of Alex Pottinger, mother of Ed Pottinger, and Mrs. George L. Davis, is very ill at her home, and fears are entertained for her recovery.

Tom A. Deering, representing J. W. Leavitt & Co., the coast agents for "Overland" automobiles, is in Medford for a few days on business for his company.

Remarkable values in suits, coats and dresses at Ahrens.

S. A. Pattison, the genial editor of the Central Point Herald, was in Medford for a short time Friday evening. Mr. Pattison will soon have the Central Point field all to himself again, just as it should be, as there never was room but for one paper in that town, and Mr. Pattison made that possible.

A general price reduction on suits, coats and dresses at Ahrens.

A. Conro Fiero and wife of Woodlawn orchards, Central Point, were in the city Friday evening. Mr. Fiero reports Woodlawn orchard as looking nicely in every respect.

If you haven't got a block in Oakdale Park addition you had better get one at once. See W. H. Everhard, 995 Ninth street, West, for particulars.

Harry J. Neeley, who for a number of years has been a field line-man with the Western Union, is in the city on his way to Klamath Falls, where he will accept a position as electrician.

Virgel Moran of Bremerton, Washington, who for some three years has worked in Uncle Sam's navy yard on Pudget Sound, arrived with his wife Saturday. It is a bridal tour and the young couple expect to see all of Southern Oregon and California.

Dr. A. M. Rhodes of Marysville, California, who has been spending some weeks with relatives near Ashland, visited in Medford Saturday afternoon.

Xmas gifts from Van de Car's will please forever.

George W. Marvin of Ferndale, Washington, arrived on the afternoon train Saturday and will remain in Medford some weeks. Mr. Marvin is here to study orchard conditions in Rogue River valley, in the interest of himself and other orchardists in the Nooksack valley, Whatcom coun-

A. W. Stanley, an experienced brickmaker from Allerton, Iowa, is here and will thoroughly investigate the clay and sand near Medford as to its fitness for brickmaking. Mr. Stanley has 20 years' experience in the manufacture of hand-mold and pressed brick and should be find conditions favorable, will open a large brick yard here.

L. R. Ralston, who recently located near Central Point, was trading in Medford Saturday afternoon.

H. R. Mann, one of the leading business men and capitalists of Buxton, Washington, is sojourning for a few days in and near Medford.

Henry J. Mooney, who has been in Klamath county for two months, returned Saturday. He says Klamath Falls is a good town, but compares with Medford about like a tomcat would compare with an American eagle.

Opera glasses make nice Xmas presents.

The users of opera glasses always enjoy shows more than other people.

H. J. Gardner of Central Point was in town Saturday. Mr. Gardner has but recently returned from Yoncola, where he purchased some property a year ago, but not preferring to winter in that valley, returned to the healthful precincts of Central Point for the winter.

What is more appropriate than a seal ring engraved properly? B. L. Van de Car will engrave it free of charge while you wait. Phipps Bldg.

Pure Clear Sparkling

You can't afford to do without this splendid, refreshing drink. Call up and order a case sent to the house. The purest, most healthful drink known is

SISKIYOU MINERAL WATER

P. C. BIGHAM, Agent.

21 Days Until Christmas 21

Call early in the morning and avoid the crowds. We have many bargains which will prove a great saving to you. Every Suit or Cloak in the store reduced one-third to one-half.

Towels and Napkins---Special Values

These qualities differ so notably from those usually marked at the prices that customers will be quick to see the advantages to economize—quantities are limited, not very large, at each price. Specials 39c to $2.00 yard.

Kid Gloves That Will Satisfy the Most Critical

The difference between a good pair and an imperfect pair of kid gloves can be so slight that even the keenest purchaser would fail to detect it—and our point in this statement is this: No woman can be so exacting in buying her gloves, as thorough in looking into fine points of qualities and workmanship, as we are in making our own purchases. When we buy gloves, we buy to please you. Famous Mascot $1.50 pair.

Attractive Man-Tailored Effects in Skirts for Women

Storm serges and Panamas of splendid durability and closely woven for warmth, have been tailored into skirts of decidedly higher character than the prices seem to warrant. Their serviceability cannot be emphasized too much. $4.00 values, $3.00; $6.00 values, $4.00; $8.00 values, $6.00.

Sale of Leather Hand Bags

Unusual values in women's fitted leather hand-bags. Lot includes black and colored bags, mostly leather lined. Leather covered or fancy metal frames, and none but the prevailing shapes and sizes are represented. $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.50 to $6.50.

Special Sale of Aprons

Values planned for this sale should make this the greatest event in years in our apron section. Many new and fascinating models shown suggest early Christmas shopping. Aprons for every need are included.

Home of McCall Patterns

28 South Central Avenue

Pay Less and Dress Better

Watch Our Window and Visit This Store For Holiday Suggestions

You are invited to visit this store every time you are down town from now until Christmas. You will find a pleasant place to rest and we are always pleased to have you come and see the new arrivals and examine the specials that are being brought on the floor from time to time, almost every day. You will find it to your advantage to watch our store for special bargains.

Renown Ranges

Here is a range that is second to none on the market and will prove all that is claimed for it in any test that you are a mind to give it. If you are looking for a range that has all the late improvements, a range that will do all that any other range will do, a range that will last as long as any on the market, and one that is sure to give absolute satisfaction, we invite you here to see the "Renown." It sells for less than many others, but you have our guarantee that you will be pleased and that you will recommend it to your friends.

ORIENTAL RUGS

ON EXHIBITION AND FOR SALE ON OUR SECOND FLOOR FOR A WEEK ONLY.

Atiyeh Bros. of Portland, Ore., one of the largest Oriental Rug importers on the Pacific coast, will have a magnificent display of Oriental Rugs on exhibition and for sale all this week, beginning Monday, December 5th, 1910. A complete assortment of every description, exquisite designs and colorings. Admirers and buyers of Oriental Rugs will find it very interesting. We invite your inspection. Atiyeh Bros. stand back of every rug they sell, and insure every protection to their customers and exchange rugs at the full purchasing value after three years "if" the customer desires. Mr. Hamief, their representative in charge, will be pleased to give all information regarding the make and the loom, as he is native expert and weaver of the fabric. An Oriental Rug is the best investment in household goods. We cordially invite every admirer's inspection. Visitors are all welcome.

Weeks & McGowan
 114-124 West Main Medford, Ore.

MANY SPECIAL PRICES

We have gone through our stock and for this week will offer many odd pieces of furniture, suitable for gifts, at the lowest prices ever made in this part of the state. Come and let us show you these odd pieces, or if you like we will match anything you desire or sell you complete sets. You will find that we have made prices that no one can afford to miss.

Hoosier Cabinets

Here is a Cabinet that is as far ahead of every other cabinet on the market as day is ahead of night. There are cabinets that cost you just as much; some are sold by peddlers who are here for only a short time, then gone to some other place; some are cheap imitations. Before you buy a cabinet, come and see the "Hoosier" and ten chances to one you will order one, for the moment you see one you are impressed with their superiority. There are so many things to consider in buying a kitchen cabinet, so many essential features, and then, too, the price is right.

THE HOOSIER SPECIAL