PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 8.—Angora goat men will have a big inning at the midwinter sheep show to be held in Portland January 4, 5, 6 and 7, in connection with the annual convention of the National Woolgrowers' association. Over $200 is offered in regular prizes and nearly twice as much in specials.

The Northwest Angora Goat association will give an elegant banner for the best individual angora goat exhibited by an amateur, defining an amateur as one who has not exhibited on the North Pacific fair circuit in 1909 or 1910.

John W. Fulton, secretary of the American Angora Goat association, writes that many have designated their willingness to exhibit and he wants every breeder in the United States to participate. If any such have not yet received premium lists he wants to be advised of it.

Secretary C. D. Minton of the midwinter sheep show has been advised by the railroads that there will be return free to points east of Chicago on all lines covering that territory, with a stop-off privilege on the return for the Denver show.
