

DEMAND REPORT OF TIMES JURY

Secretary of San Francisco Labor Council Says Continued Session Keeps Organized Labor Under an Unjust Suspicion.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 10.—Andrew J. Gallagher, secretary of the San Francisco Labor Council said today that he will at once make a formal demand upon the special grand jury investigating the Times disaster that it make an immediate report. He insists that the four weeks or more the grand jury has been in session is sufficient and that with frequent postponements the investigation is being delayed.

Gallagher arrived here today from St. Louis, where he attended the convention of the American Federation of Labor as a delegate. He established headquarters here and declared he would remain until he secures action on his demand.

"I have made up my mind to call upon the grand jury for an immediate report," said Gallagher. "We have been patient here in Los Angeles and the people throughout the country have held their breath and judgment long enough. It is time now to let the world know what the grand jury has found out.

"Adjournment and delay only keeps organized labor restless and under unjust suspicion. I am satisfied that nothing has been presented to the grand jury that can even reflect on organized labor or sustain the charges made by the Times.

"We have stood for too much in this affair already."

AN IRRIGATED ORCHARD WINS A NATIONAL PRIZE

Irrigation made it possible for the Rogue River valley to win the Grand Sweepstakes Prize at the Spokane National Apple Show just as it has made it possible for the Rogue River valley to win the first prize on its Newtown Pippins at the Canadian International Show at Vancouver.

Irrigation will make the Rogue River valley the greatest orchard district in the west; it will double the crops of the producing orchards; it will convert our waste area into prosperous homes; it will bring more people into the valley; it will build up the district and in the future, as it has done in the past, it will make it possible to produce the fruit which has won and will win the prizes offered by the national shows.

The irrigation system of the Rogue River Valley Canal Company, when complete, will irrigate 55,000 acres of land and the canal system will serve the orchardists on every side of the city of Medford.

The source of water supply is Fish Lake and Four-Mile Lake, at the foot of Mt. McLaughlin, which is also the water supply for Medford's municipal system.

The Hopkins lateral, which is a part of the Rogue River Valley Canal Company system, now covers 27,000 acres and the company is prepared to accept applications from water-users from any of the districts covered by this lateral.

A Pointer on Electric Lighting

"I am pointing at the greatest light since the discovery of the electric incandescent. It is the General Electric Mazda Lamp. It is rapidly displacing the ordinary carbon incandescent because it gives twice as much light for less money. But that isn't all: it gives light of a vastly better quality—a clear white light that is restful to the eyes. In fact, this Mazda Lamp is an invention that has revolutionized electric lighting: that has enabled anyone to now enjoy the many advantages of electric light."

"Now it will cost you nothing to come in and let me prove to you that what I am saying is literally true. Come now; your visit entails no obligation whatever."
