

Central Point Items

H. C. Caton returned from Sacramento Thursday night.

Miss Esther Merritt returned home Thursday evening from Berkeley, California, and as Mrs. Merritt's health cannot be depended on Miss Esther will probably remain.

M. R. England, the druggist, returned from a business trip to Portland Thursday.

The Christian church of Central Point is holding a convention rally at their church. On Friday there was an all-day service and splendid discourses by prominent speakers.

Mrs. Jacob Stone of this place was taken suddenly ill a few days ago but is now improving.

John Hamrick left on No. 13 train for California Thursday.

It is rumored that the Central Point picture show in a short time will be a thing of the past. Many will regret to hear this especially the young people. It was a place where one could go and see something worth all of 10 cents. Besides the humorous part of it there was much history, such as the birth of Christ, the courtship of Miles Standish, etc. If this rumor be true it is hoped that some one will be on the progressive move and start another.

W. A. Cowley has purchased the hardware store of Warner & Son. Rumor is that Mr. Warner, Sr., will leave Central Point soon to make his home in Eugene.

Ray and Ben Piggott of Washington are visiting here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Jefferies.

The members of the Presbyterian church here had a very enjoyable time at the residence of W. H. Norcross Thursday evening.

M. and Mrs. F. J. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Usher, Mr. and Mrs. Peneger, Mrs. S. Simpkins, Pearl Ross, Mary Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Manning, A. J. Dunlap, Eli Jones, Dr. Politt, J. W. Jacobs, Mrs. A. W. Beebe were among the many from Central Point that went to Medford Thursday.

Mr. Jacobs, the assistant passenger agent at the Southern Pacific depot here, who was reported to have resigned, has decided to remain.

T. M. Jones, proprietor of the Central Point Furniture Store, has a beautiful display of holiday goods. See the windows.

Dr. Ray of Medford was a business visitor here Friday.

Trail Items

The upper Rogue River Orchard ranch has changed hands.

Charles Skye man has returned home from the valley. He has taken his daughter, Clara, down to Agate to Mr. and Mrs. Tarfell's where she will stay and spend the winter in school.

There is going to be a false ball at Trail, Christmas.

Mrs. A. H. Lawrence is improving. She has been under the weather for some time.

Mr. Touchet of Trail is very ill.

Mrs. J. T. Fry and Miss Mary Fry were pleasant callers on the Lawrence's recently.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald are visiting their parents on Train creek.

Mr. Mayfield of the Meadows was over on Train hunting cattle recently.

Ed Briscoe has gone out to the valley with a party from the Red Cloud mine.

Jess Ragsdale has been hunting for cattle for the past week. He found a few and took them down to Trail to F. Y. Allen.

J. T. Fry has been hauling hay down from his son's, C. R. Fry's ranch to his own ranch.

Fred Warner has rented the Bigure ranch for a few years.

Rube Johnson, F. Y. Allen and Dave Pence went up on Trail creek to get some cattle recently.

Chauncey Dennis is now visiting his homestead on Trail. He has been working for the Gages of Beagle.

Oliver Gaines visited Trail recently.

Miss Gladys Allen, who has been working in Medford for some time, came up to visit her father, but while visiting at G. Lynch's got water bound and could not reach home.

EaglePoint Eaglets

—By—
A. C. Fowlett.

Last Tuesday Ed Clemens and Mr. Lewis, the man who bought the Turrel place, came out on the cars, procured a rig here and went to the farm. It is the old West place near Brownsboro. He is planning to make considerable improvements on the place this winter.

James Ringer, who was badly hurt last fall by having a porch roof fall on him, has so far recovered as to be able to go to work again. He is papering his son-in-law's, Joseph Mumaw's, new house and occasionally doing a little painting. He had his ribs broken loose from the spine and is still quite feeble.

Frank Manning of Peyton, wife and daughter came last Tuesday and Wednesday went to Medford, and at this writing, Friday, has not returned.

R. E. Peyton of Peyton, and wife and two younger children returned from a visit to relatives in Illinois last Tuesday and remained here until Thursday, when they employed Jud Edsall to take them as far as Derby, where they were met by their son to take them on up home. They expressed great delight over getting back to our lovely country climate.

Scott Claspill and wife came out from Butte Falls Wednesday and went to Medford the next day to lay in a supply of dry goods for their store in B. F.

M. F. Hanley and another man whose name I did not learn spent the night with us Wednesday.

Mose Barkdull, Dell Hazel, Jack Plymale and another man whom I did not know have been here loading a car of apples Thursday and Friday.

A. D. Wolfer, a brother of our strawberry man, and his friend, Mr. Strang of Portland, came in on E. S. Wolfer Tuesday evening unannounced. Ed said that at first he hardly knew his brother.

Elmer Spencer and Mr. Smoot came out Tuesday, went to Medford and Wednesday made their final proof on their homesteads, and on Thursday morning took the stage for Butte Falls.

hunters. They ran across Mr. Grey, who lives on the old Moornaw place, and he put them on the right track, but they got bewildered in the fog and tramped for quite a while in sticky before they found the place, and now they laugh at their first experience in sticky and the fog.

Mr. and Mrs. Quackenbush, the new comers on the Lee Bradshaw place, went to Medford Friday evening to remain until Sunday.

Married—By John Watkins, J. P., Mr. Monday and Mrs. J. A. Bzbot, in Eagle Point, the evening of the 14th of December, 1910.

Daniel Y. Iddings, secretary of the Rogue River Valley Orchards company of San Francisco, Cal., spent the night with us Wednesday. He was here looking after the interests of the company. They have the Ulrich-Hamilton tract of land at their disposal and he was here also to interview other parties who own large tracts of land. He seemed to think that this section of the country will soon be quite a prominent factor in Jackson county.

Mr. Alastader and two helpers came out Friday to survey off the Bradshaw place. They are stopping at the Sunnyside.

CHRISTMAS BEEF FOR PORTLAND PURCHASERS

GAZELLE, Cal., Dec. 17.—Goodale & Casedy shipped three cars of beef from this place to Portland. One car contained six of the heaviest steers ever shipped from this county at one time, each steer weighing over 2100 pounds. It will be remembered that Goodale & Casedy took all the first prizes awarded at the Christmas sale of cattle at Portland last year with cattle they had shipped from this point. They are expecting to make another good showing at the coming Christmas sale.

Improving Sisson System.

SISSON, Cal., Dec. 17.—The telephone company has a large crew of men at work here engaged in construction work. They are putting up new poles and wire in all parts of town, and will make various other improvements in the system here. The work is in charge of William Lewis of Sacramento, who figures that it will take until January 1 to complete the job, weather permitting.

Determined to Sell

This beautiful country place, comprising 14 acres, is located within a mile of Medford upon one of the best country roads in the valley. It is practically all set to trees, with a family orchard in bearing. The buildings, which could not be duplicated for less than $2,700, are all new. The house (bungalow) is exceptionally attractive.

For the next few days we have been authorized to offer the property at the low price of $3000.00. Any reasonable terms will be accepted. Arrange to see this bargain Monday. If the price is not right, make us an offer.
