WAY DOWN SOUTH IN THE LAND OF COTTON.

The South may well lay claim to the title, "Land of Cotton." There nearly fourteen million bales of cotton are produced each year, out of a total world crop of twenty million bales.

The production of cotton oil shows up even more favorably.

The choicest cotton oil goes into the manufacture of Cotoleone, which has won favor not only on its merits as a frying and shortening medium, but because of its purity and wholesomeness.

Cotoleone is as wholesome and genuine as the far-famed hospitality of the "Sunny South."
