The Arrival of Old Saint Nicholas

Every man, woman and child in Medford is looking forward to Xmas day and the arrival of Old St. Nick. It is the one great desire of every man and woman to make their home on Xmas morn one of pleasure and happiness. It is on this day that each and every member of the family expects a Xmas gift of some sort. What has been provided for the family in the way of presents for Xmas? Remember only three more days remain in which to complete your purchases. If you will visit this store we will be glad to suggest something that will be of interest—something useful as well as ornamental—and it is in the presentation of such gifts that Xmas joys are best realized. We have just received another shipment of holiday goods from the east. Perhaps you will find here now just the proper thing for every member of the family.
