L. J. Gay and wife of Seattle are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gay, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roper are here visiting Mrs. Roper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman of Ashland are guests of W. C. Oswald and family.

Joe Rader, ex-sheriff, of Phoenix, and also Frank Bybee were here attending to cattle business last week.

Mrs. Moon has returned home from an extended visit east.

John Hanna of Portland arrived the latter part of the week to spend the holidays with his family and relatives here.

Louis Gay and wife of Seattle spent Christmas with Game Warden Charles Gay and wife of Medford.

Prof. F. F. Cooper left for Eugene Saturday morning to spend the holidays.

Robert Moore and wife of Gold Hill spent Christmas in Central Point, the guests of his mother and Mrs. J. W. Merritt.

W. H. Parks and family from Phillipsburg, Kansas, arrived here Sunday morning and make this place their permanent residence.

Mrs. C. B. Rastel and children spent Sunday in Medford with friends.

The Christmas exercises were all a decided success and were well attended.

The cantata at the M. E. church was very good, considering they only had a few days' practice. The different characters were well represented, especially Uncle Sam, Santa Claus, Jack Frost, etc. Much credit and praise is due the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Usher spent Sunday with Medford relatives.

Miss Edith Brown was a Medford visitor on Saturday.

Miss Marion Hammerick was at Medford shopping Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Beebe are spending the holidays with relatives and friends at Coram, Calif.

Miss Lena Downing is spending the holidays with her parents at Jacksonville during the past week, but it was not attempted to try to run as far as the Falls as the roadbed will not permit.

Ice a half inch in thickness formed Saturday night and Sunday, while bright and beautiful overhead, was rather cool and bracing and much frost was in evidence.

The stage is quite likely to run all winter if the roads are put in order so that the mail can be carried and the passenger travel accommodated, of which there is more or less during the winter season.

With the oncoming of spring and the general revival of trade that is predicted for Butte Falls, it is expected that several new stores and our bank enterprise will materialize and many people will rush into town.

The Socialists have rented the upper room of the Bann building and hold weekly meetings. They are quite strong hereabouts and show a manifest interest in their cause.

We are blessed in this section in not having fogs as prevail, during winter, in the valley, yet we have had an abundance of rain and frost and some warm days, but no foggy weather.

Gus Edmonson was visiting the valley during the week and came back with Frank Netherland.

Butte Falls Items

A. E. Austin of the unsurveyed walked out to Medford on Tuesday and after transacting some business returned on Saturday and went to his homestead. He reports it as being foggy in the valley and that all the stores appear to be doing a rushing Christmas trade.

Thought the kindness of some of our people a very convenient lecture desk, for religious services, has been placed in the Assembly room and now if the people will furnish a large Bible to place upon it and a kneeling stool it will add very much to its attractive usefulness.

It is said that some valley parties intend opening a fruit and confectionery store in the large room of the bank building, but will build in the spring a suitable store-room.

Sunday was a delightful sunshiny day overhead and if the walking had been good nothing more could have been asked for a beautiful December day.

Several strings of nice brook trout and some salmon have been caught in the creek during the month.

The forest rangers have been directed to continue their work of seed planting all the winter and as this is the supply point it will help the merchants very much as two or three times a week wagons come in for needed camp necessities.

A train was run as far as Com-

eron during the past week, but it was not attempted to try to run as far as the Falls as the roadbed will not permit.

EaglePoint Eaglets

There has been a considerable rush to our town during the past few days. On Wednesday night the Sunny Side was full, and there were twenty head of horses in town, most of them from Butte Falls, and again Thursday night we were full to our utmost capacity and the barn was also full, and the question arises where do so many come from? Among the visitors were Lerone (Bud) Obenchain, from Klamath Falls on his road to his old home to visit his father, Mr. John Obenchain, proprietor of the old and popular hostelry known as Obenchain's. Another was Charley Edmondson, a step brother-in-law, who married a step-sister by John O.'s second wife another was Israel Patton of Butte Falls, who came out on Wednesday, went to Medford on Thursday and back to Eagle Point the same day; William Hughes, recently from Cottage Grove (he was on his way to visit his parents who are in the mercantile business in Butte Falls, Professor E. E. Smith, who has been engaged teaching in the sugar pine district for the past year or two, but is now living in Butte Falls; one of the Baker boys, who had been attending circuit court in Jacksonville; Thomas Farlow and wife, who live on the south fork of Little Butte creek, and had been out to Medford for supplies and furniture; Mrs. Gippert and her son Harris, who were on their way to Jacksonville to act as witnesses in the Jack O'Connor hog case; Ira Tugate, one of the business men of Butte Falls; Mr. Wheeler, of the firm of Claspil & Wheeler, also of Butte Falls; Mr. Mathews, who is interested in the Marcy & Cadzoe store of Butte Falls, was out for a load of goods with a young man by the name of Morris; Ed Watson, the justice of the peace for that city beside three strangers whose names I did not learn.

Thursday I took a trip to Medford on the P. & E. train, and among the passengers was Mr. and Mrs. Findley. They went in on special business, but the train was so long getting to Medford that Mrs. Findley said that she had no time to do any trading, so had to return home with what she wanted. Mrs. Wright, the wife of the depot agent; Mrs. William Von der Hellen, Mrs. F. M.

Stewart, Mrs. Cole, wife of one of the engineers running a train on the P. & E. railroad, beside quite a number of the men already mentioned.

Our school gave quite an interesting entertainment Friday afternoon, and the ladies are preparing to have a nice program for Sunday.

Messrs. Armspiger, Stewart & Co., the engineers who have been out surveying out the Lee Bradshaw place, got through Friday afternoon and returned to Medford.

Gus Rosenberg, who bought a part of two lots of A. J. Dalry, bargained for the other parts of the lots Friday from A. C. and S. E. Howlett, and has fenced them in and expects to build on them in the spring.

Miss Rosa Ayres, who has been assisting Mrs. Howlett in the hotel, went home Friday afternoon to spend Xmas with the old folks at home.

F. M. Stewart was circulating a petition to have himself reappointed a notary public last Friday.

When You Are Ill

It doesn't take a good doctor to tell that. Most anyone can do as much. To tell what makes you ill sometimes calls for the utmost skill of the best physician.

Anyone, by a few simple tests, can tell that your eyes are defective—that you need glasses of some kind—but to know the exact cause and fit the right glasses calls for more than ordinary skill.

I have made the fitting of glasses a special study and I am in business to bring wrong eyes and right glasses together.
