

Phoenix and Vicinity

By T. F. RAWLINS.

Rather quiet this week for a holiday week. The weather man keeps busy and keeps the people busy guessing what tomorrow will be.

The Xmas entertainments given by the churches was a success in every way. Quite a lengthy program was rendered at the Christian church and the tree lighted with electricity. Mr. Wright, electrician, kindly put in the lights and wired up the tree. It was very beautiful.

Miss Magnus, Miss Wright and Miss Hazel Johnson prepared the program and trained the children, and they did their work well. The children did their parts well.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett of Ashland visited with Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Garrett's mother, this week. And this reminds us that ye scribe and wife partook of and enjoyed very much a fine Xmas dinner served at the home of Mrs. Anderson. All feasted to the full.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney and Miss Amy, their daughter, were over from Fern Valley Xmas and attended service at the Christian church. They report very bad roads over their way. Pastor T. F. Rawlins of the Christian church expects to be away from home for two or three weeks in a revival meeting in Eastern Oregon. During his absence, Rev. Mr. Jones of Central Point will supply the pulpit.

Our Phoenix people will remember the revival at the Presbyterian church to begin first Sunday and the first day of January.

At the Presbyterian church the program was well prepared and well rendered, and the effect very pleasing. The children were all made happy with gifts of candy and nuts and other gifts.

Miss Mina Magnus, the popular teacher at Ruch, is visiting her sister, Miss Dorris, who is one of our Phoenix teachers, this week. They called at the sanatorium of ye scribe one evening and we enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Mr. Fred, Miss Stella and Miss Christina Irwin of Talent, all attended service at the Christian church Christmas.

Mr. Earle and Miss Pearl Hoover, high school pupils at Ashland, attended service at the Christian church Xmas and are spending the week at home on the ranch.

Nearly everybody from this place attended the masque ball in Gold Hill Christmas, and report a fine time both socially and financially.

of relatives and friends of this place.

Pearl Benn, who had the misfortune to get his foot quite badly cut some few weeks ago, is able to be about on crutches.

Byrley and Lewis were Hub City visitors one day recently, combining business and pleasure.

Mrs. Holsey received the sad intelligence of the death of her husband, which occurred at the Soldier's home at Roseburg, Or., on December 26, 1910. We extend our sympathy.

Mrs. Lindsay of Medford spent Xmas week at this place with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norris.

Central Point Items

Mike and Ed Hanley were transacting business in Central Point on Tuesday.

Mr. Armpriest was here Tuesday on cattle business.

Mrs. W. D. Lewis entertained friends from Gold Hill Tuesday.

Mrs. W. E. Knibler entertained the young people's class and teachers of the M. E. church with a mock Christmas tree Monday evening at the Kahler hospitable home. The young people appreciate the fact that the "latchstring hangs outside" and the door is always open to them on all occasions. Mrs. Kahler proves herself a charming hostess. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Richardson of Medford is the guest of Mrs. Elmer Childers.

Albert Ledford is very ill at the home of his parents here.

D. Jacobs has resigned his position here at the Southern Pacific depot and left for Roseburg Tuesday.

Colonel and Mrs. Washburn are spending a few days in Portland.

Quite a number from Agate went in with part of the Table Rock people and had their Christmas trees in the schoolhouse here. An appropriate program was rendered and all report having a fine time. There were also a number of family trees in the community.

Quite a number of families had a tree in the old schoolhouse recently bought by S. K. Adams. A short program was rendered, which was followed by a commundrum supper, which made considerable fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster of Ayers' Spur spent Christmas with the family of S. C. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Bissell and daughter, Mildred, of Medford, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting here and attended the Christmas tree at the Adams place.

The Reason

This store enjoys such an enormous business that is constantly increasing is because of the fact that people have learned and are learning daily that they can buy the best for just a little less at this store.

A man told us Saturday that we were selling apples too cheap. He was joking, but he meant what he said. He had shopped and by coming here saved something like 65c an each box of apples he bought. This is one of the many reasons why we are busy.

PLAN TOWN TO DEFEAT PROHIS

Northern California Saloonmen Are Working Out Novel Scheme Which Will Defeat County Option—Will Be Six Miles Long, 200 Feet Wide.

WEED, Cal., Dec. 30.—Six miles of town, 300 feet wide, with plenty of liquid refreshment along its single boulevard, is the plan of saloonmen in Siskiyou county to defeat the county option ordinance. A new town, which shall include Edgewood at one end and Idernia, another hamlet, six miles away, at the other, and along whose course are a number of road
