IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of our little girl, Muriel, who passed away January 5, 1910:

In the church yard in the shadow
Baby sleeps,
While the wind, from wood and meadow,
Softly weeps
O'er the little mound we made her.
God knows best
With what aching hearts we laid her
Down to rest.
Vain the tears and prayers we offered.
She has slept.
While we lived and toiled and suffered.
Grieved and wept.
God was wisest; who can number
All the woes—
Baby in her tranquil slumber
Does not know.

W. W. EIFERT ISSUES STATEMENT TO VOTERS AS CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR

To My Friends, Neighbors and Fellow Citizens:

I am a candidate for the office of mayor of the city of Medford and I think it is due you that I give public utterance to the grounds on which I ask your support. I own property and am in business in this city. All my interests are here. I have been a member of the council for the past three years and the knowledge and experience I have gained while acting in that capacity will be of value to you in transacting the business of the city if you elect me mayor.

I have every faith in the future growth of Medford. Today she is the greatest factor in the development of the Rogue River valley and if her affairs are well, properly and progressively managed she will always be the great dominant city of southern Oregon.

If you elect me your mayor on the 10th of this month I pledge you that to the best of my ability I will give the city a clean, progressive, business administration.

There is only one way to insure an able and successful administration of a city's affairs and that is by placing an able and competent man at the head of each department, and no man will be named for any position simply because he is my friend. He shall be more than that; he shall also be capable and honest and if he does not make good he shall step down and out.

On the question of the sale of liquor in our city there is a wide divergence of opinion. Some believe in prohibiting its sale entirely; others believe in its regulation by one method or another, and on this question I can state my position in language, if possible, that cannot be mistaken or misunderstood.

I firmly believe in the licensed saloon with properly enforced regulative laws as the best system yet devised for the protection of our citizens against the intemperate use and abuse of liquors, and if I am elected mayor I will use all the influence and power of my office to have measures enacted that will rigidly regulate all places that are not strictly law-abiding and orderly. To this position no exception can be taken by any saloonkeeper who expects to conduct a decent and orderly business, and I do not ask nor do I want the support in this election of any liquor dealer who does not have a disposition to conduct his business along these lines.

In my judgment no new saloons, to a greater number than we now have, should be licensed to open in the city of Medford, and if I am elected I shall not favor during my term of office the granting of new licenses, with this exception, that in the event of the construction of one or more first-class hotels, licenses shall be granted them to conduct a high-class hotel bar.

In closing I wish to say that I consider it a great honor to be mayor of the city of Medford, and if you elect me to that position I wish to assure you that I will not knowingly betray the trust and confidence you place in me.

EX-JUSTICE KING PLEADS FOR BOSS

Convicted Banker Gets Support in His Fight for Pardon and Freedom by Ex-Member of Supreme Court.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 5.—Wm R. King, ex-justice of the supreme court, today filed with the governor a letter stating that the conviction of J. Thorburn Ross was illegal, but when seen this morning refused to talk of the case or allow a perusal of the letter. He stated, however, the communication was in behalf of the convicted banker, based upon the dissenting opinion recently written by himself. Chief Justice Moore, Justice Eakin, Justice McBride and Justice Bean will also submit a letter on the subject. Acting Governor Bowerman has set Saturday morning at 10 o'clock for hearing arguments on the petitions asking for Ross' pardon, and it is understood some of the ablest attorneys in the state will appear. Acting Governor Bowerman stated before leaving for eastern Oregon last week that he had not even thought of the Ross pardon, and would not until a thorough hearing was held. Bowerman is expected to arrive in Salem tomorrow morning.

FATHER OF LOCAL MAN DIES AT PARK RIVER, N. D.

William Burbidge of Park River, N. D., the father of W. J. Burbidge of this city, passed away at his home last month. The Park River Gazette says:

William Burbidge died at his home in Park River Wednesday, aged 72 years, after an illness extending over the past four months.

Deceased was born at Rawdon, Quebec, December 31, 1839, where he spent the early years of his manhood. In 1865 he married Isabella Holmes, the sorrowing wife who survives him, together with eight children. The family came to North Dakota in 1879 and settled on a homestead in Fertile township, which remained their home until a year ago, when they took up their residence in Park River.

Deceased was a popular man in that city and vicinity, and was highly esteemed and respected among all his associates and acquaintances. His genial and generous nature and upright character won him firm friends among all and his death is a loss very keenly felt.

The surviving members of the family are a wife and eight children—Amelia, Mary and Annie Burbidge and Mrs. David Aitken, Park River; John Burbidge, Grant; F. A. Burbidge, Mohall; W. J. Burbidge, Medford, Or., and Robert Burbidge, Fertile. One son, George, died in 1880. There are also three brothers and a sister of Mr. Burbidge living in Canada.

TIMBER LANDS WANTED

HARRIS TIMBER LAND COMP'Y
320 GARNETT-COREY BLDG.
MEDFORD, OREGON.

The Death of THE OWNER

Enables us to offer what we honestly believe is the best bargain in a producing orchard in the valley. There are 35 acres in the tract and it is only a mile from a shipping station.

There are about 11 acres in apples, Ben Davis, Winesaps, Spitzenbergs, Newtowns. Trees are about 20 years old. They are in good condition and produce heavily.

There are also about 12 acres in standard varieties of peaches, in full bearing. About 8000 crates of peaches were shipped from this orchard last year.

There are also 8 acres planted to Newtown apples, which were three years old this winter.

The balance of the land is cleared and was in grain last year.

The buildings consist of a house, barn and packing house.

We think a reasonable estimate of the crop on this place this coming year would be 3000 to 4000 boxes of apples and 6000 to 8000 crates of peaches.

A team of horses and a full equipment of machinery goes with the place.

The price is $15,000, a trifle more than $400 an acre. The terms asked are half cash, balance easy. If you cannot meet these terms as to the cash required, make us an offer.
