There are 2779 school children in Eugene. To compute the census from this number by using the multiple 4.5, which is much lower than used in most cities, the figure is 12,505. The Peck directory estimated the population of the city at 13,000 a year ago and the vote cast at the November election in the nine Eugene precincts indicates that the population is far above 10,000.

WELLINGTON, N. Z. Jan. 13.—A national provident fund bill, designed to take the place of the old age pension bill, will become a law at this session of the lawmakers, it is believed.
The bill already has passed its third reading before the lower house, and a poll of the upper body indicates that it will have a majority there.

HASKINS FOR HEALTH.
The House Judiciary committee voted a favorable report providing punishment for spies in times of peace. It is designed to remedy defects in the present law, which provides no punishment for foreign spies.
An attempt will be made to push the bill through the house. The measure would affect the activity of Japanese spies in the Philippines. The recently discovered activity of spies there is said to be the reason for the endeavor to rush the bill through.

C. CLAIM POPULATION OF EUGENE 12,505

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 13.—A great wall has gone up from the people of Eugene over the announcement by the government census bureau at Washington that this city had only 9999 population when the census was taken last April. It is believed that the bureau cut off a large number of names from the list sent in by the local enumerators, although it is known that those who took the census here missed several hundred people, despite the fact that the newspapers and the Commercial club used every effort to get a complete count.
One enumerator is known to have missed five families in one block and doubtless did his work like that all over his district. All the names possible of those who were not counted were secured by the newspapers and Commercial club, but the information concerning some of them was incomplete and it is believed here that they were thrown out by the officials at Washington.

JOHNSON SAYS HE IS MOST WILLING

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—"The $50,000 offer of H. H. Frazee and Jack Gleason for a fight in London with Al Kaufman is too good to be true," said Jack Johnson today.
"It must be a joke," said the colored champion. "I can't make myself believe that it is on the square. I only hope it is, though, for I can't think of an easier way to make that big a pile."

TO PREVENT JAPS MARRYING WHITES

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 13.—It is confidently predicted here today that the inter-marriage of whites and Japanese will be prohibited in Washington after the present meeting of the legislature. Two measures forbidding marriages of this character have been introduced, one by Representative Wray of King county and the other by Representative Gheat.
The bills follow as a result of the notoriety gained by Seattle following the marriage of Gungiro Ooki and Gladys Emory, daughter of Archbishop Emory of Cortemadera, Cal., two years ago. The couple were married in Washington because the California law prohibits such unions.

A pleasure trip to Squaw Lake recently indulged in by Edward King, "Shim" Adams and Earl Landers will probably have changed from a "quiet time in the mountains" to a pastime strongly resembling the daily duties of a snow plow before they get back.

PHONES HUSBAND TO COME HOME; IS DYING

SANTA ANA, Cal., Jan. 13.—"Come home, John; the house is on fire and I think I am dying."
Mrs. John Gowen telephoned this message to her husband after she had been fatally burned by an explosion of a gasoline iron.

Gale and Necie, in "The Barrier"

NO DOUBT ABOUT "BARRIER" COMING THIS TIME.

For the second time in the last two seasons, contracts have been received by Manager Charles D. Hazelrigg for the coming of Klaw & Erlanger's New York success, "The Barrier," to the opera house on Tuesday, January 17.
If the war between the leading theatrical magnates, which influenced hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of plays, had not reached a crisis, "The Barrier" would have visited us long before this, as it was one of the original bookings scheduled for the high spots on the Pacific coast.
There is an armistice declared at the present time, and in between the clashing of the factions, "The Barrier" has been permitted to pass, carrying a flag of truce, for its mission is peaceful and the demand for it has caused the men big in the theatrical affairs to have some consideration for the long suffering public.
