WEST REMOVES DR. PLAMONDON

At Least Two Years Required For Building of Branch Asystem and Office Not Nee led Until Buildings Are Ready Is Belief of Board

SALEM, Or., Jan. 13. - Qr. J. C Plamondon, appointed by Actige Gov. ernor Jay Bowerman superintendent of the eastern Oregon branch asylum yet to be built at Pendleton, was this afternoon removed from office by Governor Oswald West and State FOR EXCHANGE-87 acres partly Treasurer T. B. Kay, the new members of the board governing the state Institutions.

Dr. Plamondon was notified of the intended action of the board soon after Governor West was inaugurated last Tuesday. It was conveyed to FOR EXCHANGE-Medford him from the governor through State Senator C. A. Barrett of Umatilla, his father-in-law, that his resignation would be accepted. Dr. Plamondon, however, answered by stating he would resign if he were assured by the board of a place on the staff of the new institution when that staff is selected by the board. This neither State Treasurer Kay nor Governor West would promise, and the action taken by this board this afternoon followed.

EGGS TO SOAR IN PRICE AGAIN

Owing to the recent cold snap, the price of eggs on the local market will go a little higher, in the opinion of produce men.

For the same reason the marks remains the same as earlier in the week, no changes having taken place since Monday,
