

EGGS IS EGGS AND A HEN IS NO BIRD

Matter of Tariff Brings Oracular Dictum From the United States Court in Settlement of Puzzling Question

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Eggs are eggs. Also a hen is not a bird. So says the United States court of customs appeal in a decision which seems to settle a question which has muddled the customs, perplexed the experts and finally called in the zoologists.

Eggs coming from China usually have been broken out of the shells, packed in tin cans and frozen. Customs officials contended they entered this country in competition with home laid eggs and assessed a duty of 5 cents a dozen.

The importer said they should be free of duty, under that section of the tariff which puts the eggs of birds on the free list, and contended that at most they were only albumen and dutiable as such. The full bench of five justices agreed that the claim that a hen is a bird lacked merit, and that an egg is an egg, in the shell or out of it.

MARY MANNERING WILL BE HERE THURSDAY

becomes involved in a net of suspicion, since the artists who are her friends are busybodies. A tale is carried concerning the peculiar resemblance borne by the child to a member of their community. In a startling manner she suddenly finds that the man she loves and has idealized and who is the cause of her bitter fight against men, is the father of the child.

"A Man's World" is said to be a study of realism, replete with highly dramatic features, relieved with comedy, and telling an intense story. It is the most successful play in which Mary Manning has appeared. For many years. The role she takes affords her notable opportunity to display the varied phases of woman's character, when confronted by obstacles in the conflict of circumstances. The Messrs, Shuberts, who manage Miss Manning, have surrounded her with a dignified supporting company.
