

MISS MANNERING GREAT SUCCESS

"A Man's World," Dealing With Social Standards of the Day is Admirably Presented—Miss Mannering Fulfilled Expectations.

"A Man's World," the story of a tragedy of every day and depicting the injustice of a social system that casts out an erring woman yet not only countenances but embraces her consort, served last night to enable Miss Mary Mannering to score a decided triumph at the Medford theater.

Miss Mannering's role, that of "Frank" Ware, shows her a big-hearted, whole-souled woman who is devoting her life to helping her fallen sisters back to the straight and narrow path. Several years prior to the opening of the play she had taken an outcast girl into her home and, upon her death, had adopted the child—a boy. Because she refuses to make the child's story known to the world she is made the victim of malicious gossip—gossip which, when a resemblance between the child and Malcolm Gaskell, "Frank's" betrothed, is noticed, links her name too closely with his.

Gaskell turns out to be the child's father. He refuses to acknowledge having committed a great wrong on the grounds that "a man's world" only winks at such, and as the result is refused and turned away by "Frank."

The company supporting Miss Mannering is a strong one, and each of the characters is well portrayed. Alphonz Elthier as "Malcolm Gaskell" is a big man, admirably big in a big part, while Master Mark Short as "Kiddie" the nameless child around whom the play centers, depicts to perfection the actions and speeches of a real, and not the stage, child. The words and actions written by Miss Rachel Crothers, the authoress of the play, for "Kiddie" are natural in every detail.

TEDDY MAY HUNT IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 20.—It is more than likely that Col. Theodore Roosevelt will visit British Columbia in the near future in quest of big game. Game Warden A. Bryan Williams of this province said today that he had written a letter to Roosevelt, which he hoped would result in a long contemplated visit being paid.

When Colonel Roosevelt was in England on his way back from South Africa, he saw the big game that had been shot by Mr. Graham of Sussex in this province. The ex-president declared that the "bag" was the finest he had ever seen made on the American continent, and expressed a keen desire to visit British Columbia himself and try his luck.

Chas. Strang Sells Remarkable Catarrh Cure.

Pour a few drops of HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-me) into the hard rubber inhaler and you can then breathe into the lungs the very same antiseptic, germ killing air as you would breathe in the Australian forests of eucalyptus, where catarrh is unknown.

And HYOMEI is so pleasant to use; you'll like to use it; when you breathe it the effort on the inflamed catarrh infected and germ ridden membrane is soothing and healing.

In five minutes you get such wonderful relief that you will know that at last you have a cure for catarrh.

A HYOMEI outfit which consists of one bottle of HYOMEI, a hard rubber pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper and simple instructions for use, costs only $1.00, and extra bottles of HYOMEI, if afterward needed, 50 cents.

Besides catarrh, remember that HYOMEI is guaranteed to cure asthma, croup, bronchitis, coughs, colds, sore throat, or money back, HYOMEI is sold by Chas. Strang and leading druggists everywhere. Trial sample free from Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Japs Don't Like Filipinos. HONOLULU, Jan. 20.—Strongly supported by the local Japanese press, Japanese employed here on sugar plantations where Filipinos also labor, threaten to strike unless the Filipinos are discharged. The Japanese assert their fellow workers are robbers and thieves, and several kidnaps of the mikado's subjects on the island of Kauai have brought the trouble to a head.

HANGING BRUTAL SAYS MURDERER

Jesse P. Webb, Soon to Hang, Writes Article Dealing With Capital Punishment—Declares That Electro-cution Is Diabolical.

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 20.—Couching his argument in calm, judicial phrasing, Jesse P. Webb of Seattle, who is under sentence for the murder of William A. Johnson, the victim of the Portland "trunk mystery," has written an article for a local newspaper, decrying capital punishment. The article will be published today. Coolly he discussed the different forms of capital punishment. "Of these," he writes, "electrocution is the most diabolical."

Webb's article reads like a legal brief, so free is it from anything historical. He says that he believes he is more competent to write on the subject than the ordinary man, "for, he explains, 'the noose is dangling around my own neck.'"

He treats premeditated murder exhaustively, saying that not one murder in 100 is premeditated, for the murderer, "to use his own words, 'forgets circumstances in the heat of the quarrel and with passion burning in his soul.'"

Johnson, Webb and Mrs. Carrie Kersh, with whom Webb had been living in Spokane, came to Portland together. Johnson was wealthy. In the afternoon of the day of their arrival, Webb purchased a trunk, had it sent to the hotel where the trio had registered and later in the day checked it for Puyallup, Wash. Shortly before midnight one of the baggagemen in the union passenger station noticed blood trickling out of the corner of the trunk. When the police and coroner investigated they found that Johnson had been terribly beaten and crammed into the trunk before he died. Mrs. Kersh recently was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary, and Webb is to hang for the crime.

WANT SHORTER HOURS FOR ALL DRUG CLERKS

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 20.—Drug clerks who work anywhere from 15 to 18 hours a day, as they are very often required to do; are likely to give one a little corrosive sublimite instead of plain digestiva tablets when the loss of sleep obscures their senses.

This is the belief of the Pharmaceutical association officers, and in consequence a bill to limit the drug clerks' working day to ten hours will be introduced in the legislature, it is announced.

Beguiling Women Upheld

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 20.—Beguiling women, fair and false, may go as far as they like. Judge Latschaw of the criminal court holds no crime for a woman to pretend affection for a man. John Dearing complained that a maid he loved led him into giving various expensive presents, pretending that she loved him. Then she married another man. Judge Latschaw let her keep the presents.

Baby Wins Riches by Hour.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 20.—Mrs. Percy E. Donner, wife of a Pittsburgh millionaire, a retired steel man, gave birth to her first child less than an hour before New Year's day was ushered in, and it is announced now that by the child being born before the close of 1910 Mrs. Donner wins a fine summer home in Canada promised her by Mr. Donner, and the child will be made independent for life by its wealthy grand-mother.

Penniless: Left $300,000.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 20.—M. L. Mason, 22 years old, a painter and penniless, has been notified by an attorney in Little Rock, Ark., that he has fallen heir to the $300,000 estate of his grandfather, George Hopkins. Mason said the first thing he thought of when he read the lawyer's letter was a big red automobile. He declares it is his intention soon as he gets hold of his fortune to "level the hills of Kansas City."

Jacksonville Notes

We are sorry to learn of the death of George Osgood, who has been manager of the Berkeley orchards since the land was purchased from the DeRobozis.

Robert Carroll and L. O. Van Wegen were taking in the sights of Medford yesterday (Wednesday).

Miss Grace Raypholtz has returned from the Ashland business college, where she has completed a course of shorthand.

Mr. Carroll of Medford was a guest at the home of L. O. Van Wegen last Friday. He left for Aberdeen, Wash., Saturday evening, where he has employment as head sawyer in one of the large mills. His family will remain in Medford for about a month visiting relatives before joining him in Washington.

Our young people enjoyed the snow immensely, sleighing and coasting being all the go as long as the "beautiful" lasted.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Burch and children and Mrs. Ella Raypholtz and daughters, Abbie, Hazel, and Maud were out for a sleighride last Sunday and spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Van Wegen.

James Blaisdell has returned to his home in Klamath county after a several days' visit with friends near Jacksonville and in Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks and two grand sons will soon leave us to make their home in California again. Their place was recently sold for $18,000, and consisted of 35 acres mostly in young apple trees.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Burch and Miss Abbie Raypholtz were calling on Roy Lofland and bride one day last week.

Miss Kate Chapman has returned from a two weeks' visit in San Francisco.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Metcalf, one of the pioneer ladies of Jacksonville, has almost entirely lost her eyesight.

For Breakfast Try "Sunkist" Oranges
Luscious Tree-Ripened Fruit
It is not sufficient to know that oranges are the most healthful of all fruits. It is quite as important to know the kind of oranges that are most healthful and most palatable. The very finest California oranges are now packed under the label "Sunkist." Please serve "Sunkist" oranges at breakfast tomorrow and learn the superiority of tree-ripened, seedless, fiberless oranges over the commonplace kind. Don't fail to save the wrappers.
"Sunkist" Lemons Juiciest
Lemons differ as much as oranges. Pithy, thick-skinned lemons contain very little juice. You waste in money when you buy them. Please ask for "Sunkist" Lemons and note how uniformly sweet each one is, and what a small percentage is skin and fiber.
Get This Valuable Orange Spoon
Save 12 "Sunkist" orange for lemon wrappers and send them to us, with 12 cents to pay charges, packing, etc., and we will present you with a genuine Rogers Orange Spoon, of beautiful design and highest quality. If you desire more than one, send 12 "Sunkist" wrappers and 12 cents for each additional spoon. In returning, please send one-cent stamps when the amount is less than 24 cents; on amounts above 24 cents, we prefer money order, express order or bank draft. Don't send cash. We will be glad to send you complete list of valuable premiums. We honor both "Sunkist" and "Red Ball" wrappers for premiums.
