

TRAGIC STORY IS YIELDED BY FOREST

Man Is Devoured by Wolves—His Bride of Four Weeks Badly Frozen When She Attempts to Reach His Side.

story of the forest SHIRDLU UPU COBALT, Ont., Jan. 28.—A tragic story of the forest is contained in dispatches received here today from the district of North Gowganda concerning the death of Felix Wilson, a trapper, who was devoured by wolves and his bride of four weeks who was found a week later badly frozen and nearly dead from exposure. Her hair turned gray as a result of her experience. She is now recovering at Gowganda.

Early last week Wilson started to make his usual round of his traps. He did not return and his wife became anxious. After waiting four days she started for Gowganda despite the fact that she had no snowshoes and the snow was waist deep. Meanwhile a friend of Wilson's named Dumont came across Wilson's deserted camp and immediately organized a searching party. They found. They found Mrs. Wilson two miles from her cabin with her hands and feet terribly frozen but no trace of Wilson could be found.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS ATTRACT VISITORS

Surest and Best Foundation for Prosperity and Rapid Growth.

Every Enterprising City in Oregon Is Feeling the Power of Good Advertising in the Settled Policy of "More Paving."

The following extracts from an article in the Grants Pass Observer, should be read and thoroughly digested by every loyal citizen of this city. The moral is important and obvious:

"The improvements made in our business streets the past year are not only a good thing for the city and the people living here, but they are advertising this city all over the state of Oregon and impressing this city on the minds of all people who pass through as tourists.

"Reports come from all over the state that people have heard of this city's elegant streets and the excellent lighting system that has been installed. A gentleman was here from Marshfield last week who is making a tour of all the cities of Oregon getting ideas on civic improvement for the chamber of commerce of his city, and he was very loud in his praise of the improvements in this city and he said that our bitulithic paved streets were the prettiest and best lighted of any city he had visited.

"This did not start in on the improvements as early as some of the other cities, but the past administration profited by the work of other cities and got the best.

"When the night trains pass through Grants Pass passengers crane their necks to look at our beautiful paved and lighted streets.

"The streets and lights are a great advertisement to the city, but the improvement should not be allowed to stop, and the people should start right away to continue the improvement should not be allowed to stop, and the people should start right away to continue the improvements the coming year. There is no walk of continuing the bitulithic pavement up Sixth street for several blocks and also talk of paving residence streets."

Impressario's Wife Sick.

NYACK, N. Y., Jan. 28.—Oscar Hammerstein, the New York opera impresario, has troubles other than those furnished him by songbirds. This became known today when his wife brought suit for divorce. Supreme Court Justice Tompkins appointed Daniel Sherman referee to take testimony in the case.

The Chantilly

Gray Finish
THE Chantilly is essentially a pattern that will appeal to those who seek in the family silver a certain simplicity with just enough ornament to relieve it of the appearance of plainness.

This is French in character of design and derives its name from the famous palace of Chantilly, situated some twenty odd miles from Paris. It is of the time of Louis XV. Silversmithing had greatly improved from the time of Louis XIV. to the latter part of the reign of Louis XV. and this was a period of great refinement of taste in designs for silverware, furniture, and decoration.

Made in Sterling Silver only, and stamped with the Trade Mark: Lion, Anchor and letter C

Which insures quality and purity of design.

When You Buy

Sterling silver ware, buy silver that has a name and a reputation behind it. When you buy "Gorham" silver you have the largest and best factory in the world back of it.

THE ISIS

Just Arrived--The World's Greatest Moving Picture Curtain

The wonder of the nineteenth century, known as the great Radium Gold Leaf Screen, will be seen by many for the first time

SUNDAY AT ISIS THEATRE

This will be the only house in Medford where this beautiful curtain will be seen, as Mr. Gordon, the manager, holds the lease and selling right for years to come.

Words fail to described the beauty and attractiveness of the moving pictures when thrown on this wonderful screen. Men of science have labored for years in perfecting this curtain and have at last rested from their work with the thought that they had at last turned out the most wonderful curtain the world has ever seen.

There is but one way to be satisfied—that is to come and see for yourself. If it is not the most attractive and wonderful sight you have ever seen, your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Novelty Musical Act

In conjunction with this wonderful curtain, the Musical Fletchers will be seen in a novelty musical act. Mr. Fletcher plays on everything from a broom to an old sprinkling can. His playing on six bottles held his audience spellbound, assisted by his clever little daughter, whose sweet voice brought forth great applause.

With a good song by Blanchard, who is too well known for any comment, you get a
